Meet the Front Office Ladies of Galilean Home

When you call, email, or stop by Galilean Home, chances are one of these incredible women will be the first to greet you. The front office team is more than just the administrative hub of our ministry—they're a reflection of the heart and soul that makes this place feel like home. Each of these ladies brings a unique story and a deep love for Galilean Home Ministries. This spring, we're delighted to introduce you to them.

Sandi Davidson

Sandi has a special connection to Galilean Home—her grandparents founded the ministry, and she's spent most of her life around its mission. For the past 10 years, she's worked in the front office. "My favorite part of each day is seeing the residents' smiling faces. It truly is the biggest blessing," she says. One of her favorite events is the annual Quilt Auction.

"It's amazing to see everyone come together... we get to see old friends and make new ones." Sandi says what makes Galilean so special is the family atmosphere. "We're really so blessed to work for a ministry that values our families as we do." Her message to our supporters is clear: "Whether you're buying a t-shirt, sending paper towels through our Amazon wishlist, giving a donation, or saying a prayer—we couldn't continue without you."

Tana McQueary

Tana joined the team in April 2021 and has quickly become a valued part of the front office family. For her, the most rewarding part of the job is seeing the impact of every donor. "Getting to see how each gift directly blesses the residents—it's what I love most." One moment that sticks with her is watching the residents open their Christmas presents. "The joy on their faces... it's something you have to see in person." Tana says the front office isn't just about paperwork—it's about connection. "We want supporters to know this is more than just a job. We truly care about each resident." What makes this job stand out from others? "We're more like a family than coworkers. There's a bond here that I've never experienced anywhere else."

Cindy Crumrine

Like Sandi, Cindy is also a granddaughter of the founders and has been around Galilean Home most of her life. She's worked in the office for five years now. "I love that I get to work at a Christian facility and with family," she shares. "The residents definitely make the days brighter." For Cindy, the Quilt Auction holds a special place in her heart. "We come together as one big family with a ton of volunteers. Seeing the residents light up when their longtime friends come back—there's nothing like it." Cindy's hope is that everyone who walks through the door feels welcome and cared for. "Working at Galilean Home is truly a blessing. I couldn't imagine being anywhere else."

Debbie Burt

Debbie's connection to Galilean Home began in childhood when her mom worked here and she attended Galilean Christian Academy. "I've grown up around here—it's a great atmosphere!" Since 2004, Debbie has served in nearly every corner of the ministry: Bread of Life Café, Angel House, Blessing House, Trading Post, Pre-school, and now the front office. "I fell in love with all the babies who came through Angel House," she recalls. These days, she treasures the morning greetings from the kids and the moments shared with her coworkers. "At times you'll catch us laughing, crying, reading devotions, or talking about Jesus. What an amazing God we serve." Debbie considers herself truly blessed: "I'm so grateful to work in a Christian atmosphere with four wonderful ladies. We have the best work team!"

Whether answering phones, greeting visitors, or coordinating behind-the-scenes details, these women are an essential part of what makes Galilean Home feel like a family. Their dedication, love, and faith shine through in everything they do—and we are so thankful for them.

A Note to Our Supporters

For years, our founder Jerry has shared updates and stories through these newsletters, and many of you have come to look forward to his words. Due to his declining health, he's no longer able to personally write and sign these letters. While you may not see his familiar signature, please know that the ministry is in capable hands with our dedicated staff and board, who remain committed to carrying out the mission Jerry and Sandy started.

Thank you for your continued support!
