Activity: (25%)

Choose one of the following activities:

Prompt 1: Write a Letter from Sal to Her Mother Imagine you are Salamanca "Sal" Tree Hiddle, and you decide to write a letter to your mother after your journey with your grandparents to Idaho. In your letter, reflect on the discoveries you made about your mother's past and how they have changed your understanding of yourself and your family. Describe your emotions, memories, and newfound perspectives as you come to terms with your mother's absence.

Prompt 2: Rewrite a Scene from Mrs. Cadaver's Perspective Choose a significant scene involving Mrs. Cadaver and rewrite it from her perspective. Consider her thoughts, motivations, and feelings that may not have been fully explored in the original text. How does her own experiences with loss and grief shape her interactions with Sal and influence her role in helping Sal navigate her emotions and journey?

Prompt 3: Create a New Chapter Set Years Later Imagine a new chapter set several years after the events of "Walk Two Moons." Sal is now an adult and reflecting on how her journey and discoveries as a teenager have shaped her life. Write a chapter that explores where Sal is now, how she has grown from her experiences, and how her relationships with characters like Phoebe, Gram, Gramps, and Mrs. Cadaver have evolved over time. Reflect on the lasting impact of her journey to Idaho and the lessons she carries with her into adulthood.
