School-Parent-Student Compact
2023-2024

Alma Bryant High School, and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs federally funded by Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act of 2015 (ESSA), participating children) agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards.

School Responsibilities

Alma Bryant High School will:

- 1. Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards as follows:
 - Use the Alabama College and Career Ready Standards and the Mobile County Public School System guidelines for instruction
 - Use effective, research-based teaching strategies when teaching concepts to ensure all students meet the State's academic achievement standards
 - Promote positive and meaningful communication among administrators, teachers, parents, and students and work to ensure that our school is a safe and secure learning environment
- 2. Hold parent-teacher conferences during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement.
 - Parent-Teacher-Student Partnership Conferences will be held during the first semester for students who have not passed any or all parts of the ACT and students who do not pass the end of course/quarter test. Conferences will be held throughout the year as needed to address teacher and parent concerns.
- 3. Provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress.
 - Specifically, the school will provide reports as follows: Schoology Parent Portal, conferences, progress reports, and quarterly report cards.
- 4. Provide parents reasonable access to staff.
 - Alma Bryant's faculty and staff will be available by appointment. Please call 251-824-3213 to schedule an appointment or consult your child's syllabus for additional information.
- 5. Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and to observe classroom activities.
 - The parent program organizer communicates the need for volunteers and assists parents.
- 6. Ensure regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff, and, to the extent practicable, in a language that family members can understand.
 - ABHS will encourage and facilitate two-way communication with family members through multiple avenues, including our school website, Twitter, Facebook, as well as during our annual open house and by phone. Please feel free to call the school at 251-824-3213.

Parent Responsibilities

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

- Monitor attendance
- Support discipline policies of the classroom and school and assist in decisions relating to my child.
- Stay informed about my child's education and communicate with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district either received by my child or by mail and responding, as appropriate.
- Serve, to the extent possible, on advisory groups, such as Title I advisory committees and parental involvement committees.

Student Responsibilities

I, as a student will share the responsibility to improve my academic achievement and achieve to the State's high standards. Specifically, I will:

- Attend school regularly.
- Give to my parents or guardian all notices and information received by me from my school every day.
- Complete and return all assignments given to me by my teachers to the best of my ability.
- Obey all school rules and follow procedures set forth by administrators and teachers.
