Congratulations to the women's golf team on a record setting day yesterday at league finals. The ladies shot a team score of 505, which beat the previous school record set last year by 25 strokes! The score also qualified the ladies for the Division 2 playoffs next Tuesday in Visalia. This will be the school's first ever appearance for golf in Division 2, after 3 consecutive years in Division 3. All ladies shot personal bests and leading the way for the Panthers was second team all-league member Marissa Dollinger with a 93. Followed by all league honorable mention selection Moniah Marquez, 99, Ashlee Ruiz, 101, Jenny Curiel, 103, second team all league selection Bella Zaragoza 109 and Lexie Curiel 112. Great job ladies! (Guzman 10/19)
