This form should be completed only by the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) conducting an independent home school under the supervision of the superintendent of a local education agency (LEA). Parents enrolling their child in an approved church-related “umbrella” school or an approved Category III accredited online school do not need to submit this form.

“Home schools” are schools conducted by parents or legal guardians for their own children, which are distinct from degree-granting online or distance education schools. This form may be utilized as notice of your intent to conduct an independent home school, meaning that you will serve as the primary teacher for the student(s) as permitted by Tenn. Code Annotated § 49-6-3050. Please complete both pages of the form and return both pages to your local public school system office before the start of the school year.
