Schedule

3rd Period: School Publications (Yearbook)

Course Description: Yearbook

In this course students will gain skills in one or more of the following areas: page design, advanced publishing techniques, copywriting, editing and photography while producing a creative, innovative yearbook which records the current school year memories and events. Participants gain useful, real world skills in time management, marketing, teamwork, and design principles.

Materials: folder with paper, a pencil, and earbuds

Grading Policy

All assignments will be documented in one of the following 3 categories. Assignments will clearly state which category the assignment will be documented in.

Executive	10%	Including but not limited to homework, participation, etc.
Minor	30%	Including but not limited to quizzes, rough drafts, individual components of projects, etc.
Major	60%	Including but not limited to unit assessments, projects, essays, labs. etc.

Reassessment Policy

Proficiency may be demonstrated through a combination of formative and summative assessments. A learner must demonstrate evidence of new learning prior to any reassessment. Learners who score below a 70% may receive opportunities to demonstrate what they know and are able to do through reassessment on priority standards only. Learners can reassess twice each semester in each subject. Upon completing a reassessment the maximum score the learner can receive is scaled to 70%. The lead learner will communicate with learners and their parent(s)/guardian(s) the standards that will be eligible for reassessment at the beginning of each grading period.

Classroom Policies and Procedures; Our Patriot Promise

- I contribute my best effort and my best self.
- I honor myself, my space, and others.
- I own the choices I make, my learning, and the impact I have on others.
- I commit to quality in everything I do.
- I will come to school with my computer charged.

All policies and procedures detailed in the 2022-2023 Patriot Handbook should be followed in Yearbook class.

Discipline Plan

Should you fail to follow the above policies and procedures and/or abide by the PRHS code of conduct, I will follow the steps of the discipline plan below:

1. Warning
2. Teacher/Student conference
3. Parental phone conference
4. In-school parental conference
5. Office referral

*Note: Certain behaviors (determined by lead learner or administration) will warrant a situation where a referral is called for immediately.
