A NOTE BEFORE I GO!

Parents, I DO NOT check student binders. Students are responsible for turning in any notes, excuses, money or homework in the orange tray, the designated turn in place. I do give multiple verbal reminders each morning. Please stress to your child to turn in anything that you may place in the binder that needs to be turned in to me. You can also message me on Parent Square letting me know to be on the lookout.

*Please look over the blue homework sheet and practice skills at home. This will help prepare for our graded weekly reading assessment.

*Weekly grades will cover all reading and vocabulary skills. Weekly grades will be taken at the end of the week (Thurs. or Friday).

*Reading decodables or passages are due the following day.

*Math homework is due on Friday.
