Two-Way Communication

By working and communicating with each other, we can help our students succeed. It is vital to establish two-way communication between school and our families. We communicate in a variety of ways, including:

- Newsletters/Flyers
- ATDA Website: atdacademy.org
- Social Media:
 - Facebook- Albuquerque TDA
 - Instagram- atdajets1/ JetsATDA
- School Messenger / phone calls
- One Call Now/ text messaging/ Phone Calls
- Parent/Teacher conferences
- Title I Annual Meeting at Open House
- Monthly Title I Parent Meetings
- Regular Parent Advisory Council

We want to hear from you! We welcome your suggestions and feedback on ways to improve family engagement at ATDA!

WELCOME!

Title I Annual Meeting

Each year, we hold our Title I Annual meeting on the same evening as our Open House in September. During this meeting, we discuss:

- Our Participation in Title I
- Title I Requirements
- Parent rights to be involved and ways to be involved
- How Title I Funds are used
- Our School Letter Grade based on the New Mexico Standards Based Assessment
- Any of your additional questions

Volunteer Opportunities

Family members are welcome to volunteer in the classroom, or office for campus projects or for events.

Please contact us to discuss volunteer opportunities.

Title I Parent Compact

The Title I Parent Compact is an agreement co-developed by ATDA stakeholders to identify the expectations for students, parents, teachers, and administrators to fulfill as members of the team working together to help our students succeed.

- A copy of the compact is included in ATDA registration documents
- Teachers review the compact with parents and students during parent/teacher meetings.
- The Compact, (along with other Title I documents) is posted and can be viewed at any time on the ATDA website

We meet with parents during the school year to review and revise our Title I Parent Involvement Policy and Parent Compact. We welcome your involvement and feedback!
