Teachers can now log into Aristotle classroom management with the following link:

Educator Portal URL: https://jenningsk12.aristotleinsight.com/EducatorLogin

Then they will click on "continue with google"

Then they will choose their Jennings account.

They will then see all of their classrooms in google. They simply click on the class that's in session by clicking on the "open classroom" button. Example below.

Once open, simply click on "start session and all of the students in that google classroom will be there.

Should look something like this.
