1. Background and Statutory Authority

The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, also known as IDEA, is a federal law that gives eligible students with disabilities the right to receive special education services and assistance in school. To be eligible for special education services, a student with a disability must need instruction that is specially designed to meet the student's unique needs based on that disability. The process and procedures for initiating a referral for evaluation for special education services are found in the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) and TEC Sec. 29.004.

2. Assurance Statement

The LEA assures that it has in place local policies, procedures, and programs that are consistent with IDEA's child find requirements in 34 C.F.R. §300.111, evaluation requirements in 34 C.F.R. §300.122, and FAPE requirements in 34 C.F.R. §300.101 in accordance with the errata related to the 2025-2026 IDEA-B Formula grant posted on TEA grants website.

The LEA assures that these statements are accurate and meet the submission requirements.

Assurance Statement has been submitted with the information provided above.
