

Barry Hahn Primary School

Title I/II Parent Involvement Policy

Barry Hahn Primary Title I/II has adopted the following parent involvement policy and plan. It is our mission to assist students in developing skills necessary to become life-long learners. We strive for all students to reach a high level of academic performance as they prepare to become productive members of society.

Barry hahn Primary shall involve parents in Title I/II planning, review, and improvement programs, including parent involvement activities.

Parents of students shall be provided:

- timely information and opportunities to attend regular meetings such as family reading nights, guest speakers, Keep On Learning Lab, etc
- parent/teacher conferences where the student's progress will be discussed (if requested);
- a timely response to any parent suggestion.

ELL parents of students shall be provided:

- information regarding Title I/II activities will be provided in the native language of parents via letter, phone call, etc.....if needed;
- individual or small group conferences will be held with students from ELL families to inform them of upcoming Title I/II activities.

Barry Hahn Primary & the Meade County School District has developed a Title I/II parent-student-school learning compact that describes:

- the school's responsibility to provide high-quality instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that will enable students to meet the state's expectations;
- ways in which each parent will be responsible for supporting his/her child's learning;
- the student's responsibility for his/her behavior and academic achievement.

Last Reviewed 05-10-22