

Vice Principal and Director of Curriculum

Ms. Jeanine strives to cultivate an atmosphere that encourages growth, technology, innovation, and creativity. Ms. Jeanine works diligently to uphold the core beliefs that make our school unique. She is a Licensed Associate Counselor. She has her Teacher of Students with Disabilities and Elementary School Teacher certifications along with her Principal certification. She is also certified in the following areas; Google Instructor, Community Based Instruction certified, CPI (Crisis Prevention), Handle with Care and Sexual Education certification and Computer Programming certification. Her Bachelor's degree from Felician University is in Elementary Education and Psychology. She has a Master's degree in Clinical Psychology and a Master's degree in Educational Leadership and Special Education. Her thesis focused on Adolescent Female Attitudes towards Science and Mathematics. Ms. Jeanine loves history and travel. With a track record of successful leadership and a commitment to academic excellence, Ms. Jeanine is an invaluable asset to our school community.

School Principal

Dr. Tatum Stein is the proud Principal of George Washington School where she works with such a fantastic administrative team and dynamic staff. She received her bachelor's degree from Arizona State University in Elementary Education with a focus in arts. She was a kindergarten teacher and also a preschool teacher. She received her Master's in School Counseling from Monmouth University. She was an elementary, middle school and high school counselor. She received her Doctoral degree in Educational Leadership from Monmouth University. Her dissertation was titled HYPE (Helping Youth Process Emotions) to support elementary students' levels of anxiety and depression through mindfulness and yoga. She teaches graduate students at Columbia University through the following courses: counseling ethics, group counseling and college admissions.

Director of Student Services and Professional Development

Sue Heguy is most passionate about advocacy and mental health wellness for all youth. Ms. Heguy's goal is to make sure all GW students' needs are met and they receive the best possible support to achieve success. Ms. Heguy graduated from NYU with an MSW in Social Work and became a Licensed Clinical Social Worker in 2001. She is licensed in the State of New Jersey with 25 years of experience working with youth and families in the mental health field. Her work experience includes, a school social worker, an in-home and outpatient clinician as well as a project leader and business developer for several outpatient mental health programs for youth and families. Ms. Heguy has extensive training in trauma treatment modalities. She has been trained in MI, CBT, DBT, EMDR, and most recently clinical Hypnosis. Mrs. Heguy is a trained trauma responder and is certified in PFA/PTSM TII/CBI and QPR. Mrs. Heguy has focused her clinical expertise on helping children and adults to overcome trauma/grief and loss issues. Mrs. Heguy is also a professional trainer and provides seminars and consultation services on vital mental health topics to help improve social and emotional functioning. Ms. Heguy is a nationally trained instructor for Mental Health First Aid (2008) and Youth Mental Health First Aid (2013). Ms. Heguy is a trained instructor by the Reach Institute, New York City, in Evidenced Based Therapy-CBT techniques to train clinicians on how to most effectively treat youth struggling with depression, anxiety, trauma and disruptive behavior. Ms. Heguy is also an approved clinical supervisor by the NSAW and is SIFI certified. She is excited to be back in the school environment working with a strong leadership team and the George Washington School