VIII. ALABAMA IMMIGRATION LAW

- A. The Beason-Hammon Alabama Taxpayer and Citizen Protection Act includes several sections that affect the financial operations of Alabama School boards.
- B. Effective April 1, 2012, every business entity or employer doing business in Alabama is required to enroll in E-Verify* and follow the related federal law and regulations for verifying the employment eligibility of newly hired employees using the E-Verify program. {See Section 31-13-15(b)}

If you are an out-of-state employer with NO EMPLOYEES located in the State, then registration in E-Verify is not required, but a statement to such is required.*

- C. Two other sections of the law require business entities and employers with one or more employees working in Alabama to utilize the E-Verify program for newly hired employees as a condition of a contract, grant, or incentive awarded by a public entity on or after January 1, 2012 through the competitive bidding process. {See Section 31-13-9(a) & (b) and Section 31-13-25(b)}.
- D. Alabama laws (see Title 31, Chapter 13 of the Code of Alabama 1975) require that, as a condition for the award of a contract* by a school board to a business entity or employer with one or more employees working in Alabama; the business entity or employer must provide documentation of enrollment in the E-Verify program. During the performance of the contract, the business entity or employer shall participate in the E-Verify program and shall verify every employee that is required to be verified according to the applicable federal rules and regulations. The contractor's E-Verify Memorandum of understanding must be included with the bid. If you do not believe these requirements are applicable to your entity, include an explanation justifying such exemption. An entity can obtain the E-Verify Memorandum of understanding upon completion in the E-Verify enrollment process located at the federal web site www.uscis.gov/everify. The Alabama Department of Homeland Security (<http://immigration.alabama.gov>) has also established an E-Verify employer agent account for any business entity or employer with 25 or fewer employees that will provide a participating business entity or employer with the required documentation of enrollment in the E-Verify program. An Employer Identification Number (EIN), also known as a Federal Tax Identification Number, is required to enroll in E-Verify or to establish on E-Verify employer agent account.

Act 2012-491 defines the term contract as, "...a contract awarded by the state, any political subdivision thereof, or any state-funded entity that was competitively bid..."*

- E. If you have not previously supplied evidence of compliance with the Alabama Immigration Law to the Elmore County Schools, you will need to submit evidence with your bid response through the completion of Exhibit A and any necessary attachments.
