2002 Dedication

Mrs. Nancy Dixon

The 2002 Leonine staff is honored to dedicate this year's annual, not to a teacher, but to the true heart of Central High School – Mrs. Nancy Dixon! Experience, patience, understanding, respect, and caring are some of the numerous qualities that “Ms. Nancy” portrays. As a graduate of Central High School, her inspiring devotion to CHS continues today even after 14 years as a mentor to all students. From making her special cheese biscuits, to calling our moms when we are sick, to helping outfit us for Retro Day, to coaching the volleyball team, Ms. Nancy has made CHS not just our school, but our home-away-from-home.

Seniors story

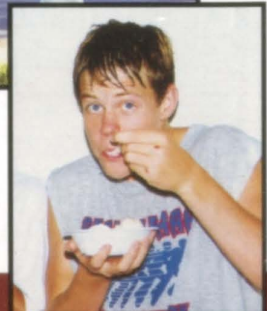

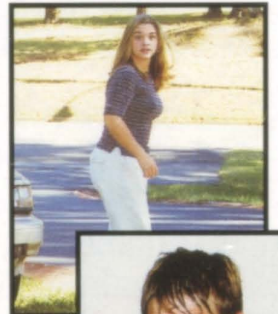

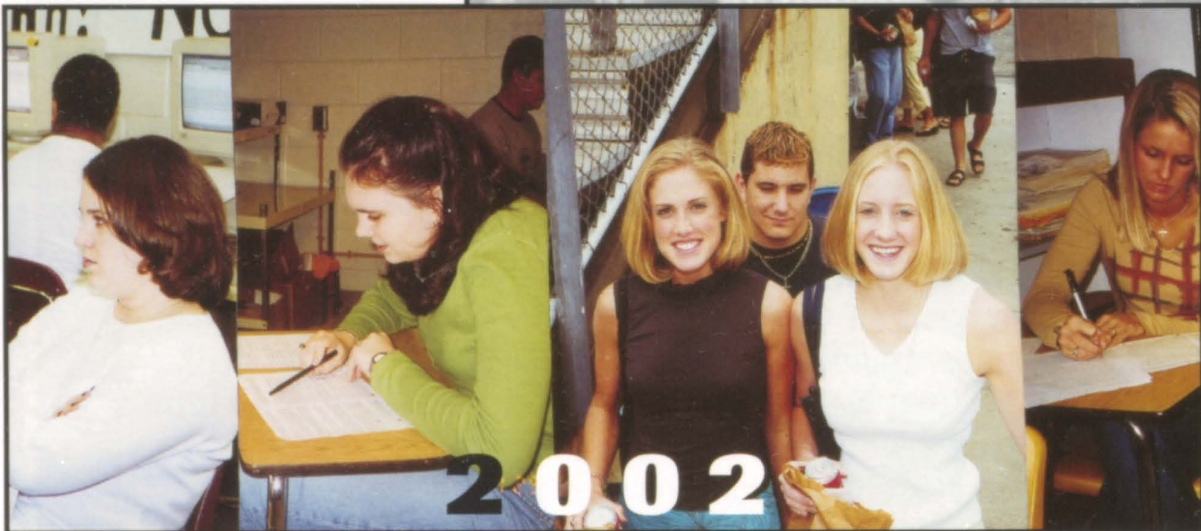

the

Neverending

*Somewhere over the rainbow,
We rushed through every day.
Until we finally realized,
The year had slipped away.*

Seniors leaving their mark ...

These Senior Cheerleaders say..."Ahh, we're glad it's our last year!"

As Seniors, we can finally say..."All that stress is over!!"

Connie Ector

Rusty Burnett

Why is Courtney Kennedy's grinning?
'Cause it's her last year!!

Seniors always get crunk at the Pep Rallies!!

Senior Officers

Whether it's organizing teams for homecoming competition, arranging meeting times, or making plans for graduation and the Senior Cruise, these officers provide a valuable link between administration and seniors.

Hannah was voted by her classmates as Miss CHS because she embodies the Lion spirit. As a member of FCA, Student Council, Journalism, and Chorus, Hannah exemplifies the Lion Pride work ethic, and her years as both a sport and competition cheer-leader show her Lion Pride spirit!

Jake's good looks and friendly personality made him a definite contender for the title of Mr. CHS. Jake's involvement with FCA, Beta Club, and as a class officer reflect his interest in the school community. His four years on the CHS Baseball team highlight his commitment to his teammates and to the Lion Pride code.

Spirit Day

The Pep Rally once again proves to be the BEST part of Homecoming week each year! Students raid the nearest stores for any class color item that they can get their hands on and come decked out head to toe in hopes of winning the competition. The cheerleaders pull their best tricks out of their hats for the most memorable pep rally of the year!!!

These cheerleaders put the "PEP" in Pep Rally!

After years of boy watching, these chicks seem to have got the BOY act down pat!

the story of 2002 Miss Leonine

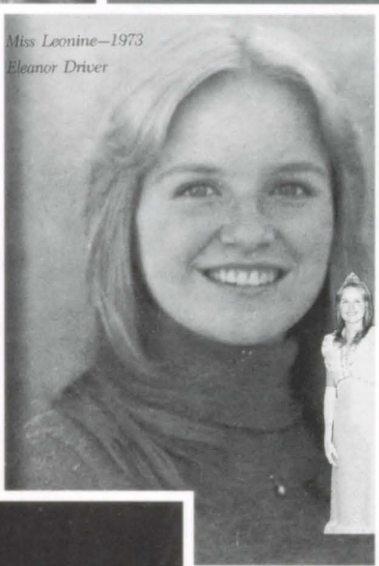

1960

Miss Peggy Edison

The first CHS student to hold the title of Miss Leonine, and 13 years later...

*Miss Leonine—1973
Eleanor Driver*

1973

Miss Eleanor Driver

...CHS tradition becomes family...

2001

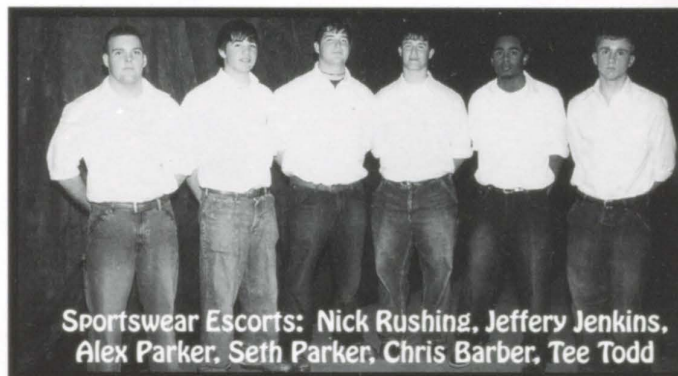

*Miss Melissa
Huckeba*

...tradition as Melissa is crowned 28 years after her mother, Eleanor Driver Huckeba, was crowned.

Top Five: Brett Miles, Amanda Owen, Heather Cooper, Misty Buchanan, Anna Potter

Thirty-two years ago, Central High School began a tradition of honoring one young lady among its student body who displayed poise, charm, and beauty. This young lady would wear the title Miss Leonine and would represent all those talented girls who passed through the halls of CHS. This tradition has continued for three decades and the class of 2002 would like to congratulate and honor, not just the winners, but all of the young women who have graced the stage and honored the name Leonine.

Sportsweat Escorts: Nick Rushing, Jeffery Jenkins, Alex Parker, Seth Parker, Chris Barber, Tee Todd

Formal Wear Escorts: Brandon Wilborn, A.T. Harrison, Michael Denney, Morgan Gravley

Academics - It All Starts Here!!

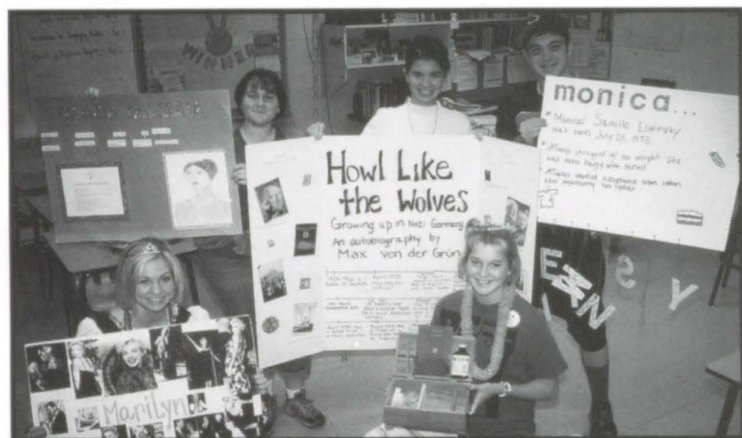

This American Literature class was a step above the rest while reenacting The Crucible.

"If I could only find the 'on' button!"

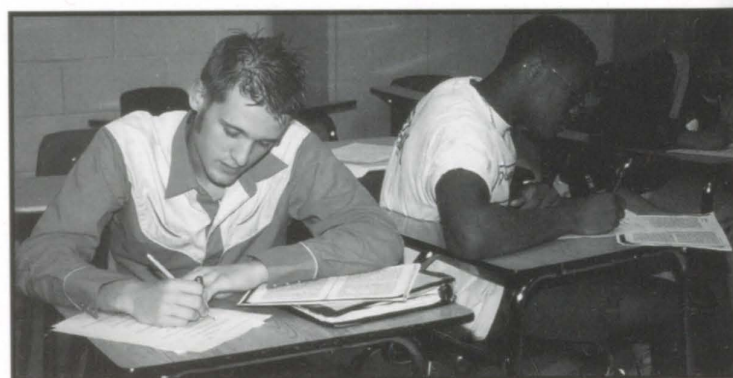

AAARGH!!!

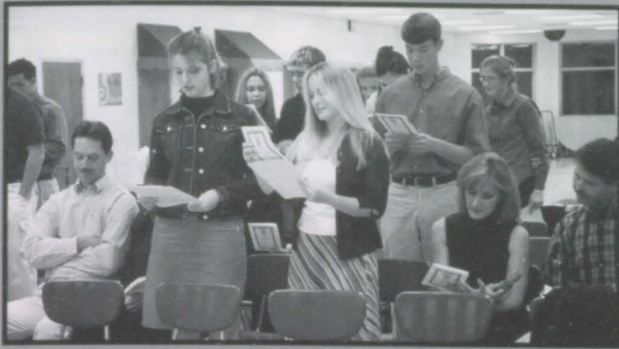

Juniors in AP Language had a blast from the past reporting on their biographies.

Don't end up like Annie; she refused to participate in Academics--now look at her.

Seniors Matt Strange and David Potts keep on being academic while waiting for May 24.

Allison Musick and Lauren Griffin are surrounded by family as they celebrate their inductions.

Joan Drammeh, Jennifer Johnson and Natalie Johnson stand as they pledge their membership.

LETTING OUR LIGHT SHINE

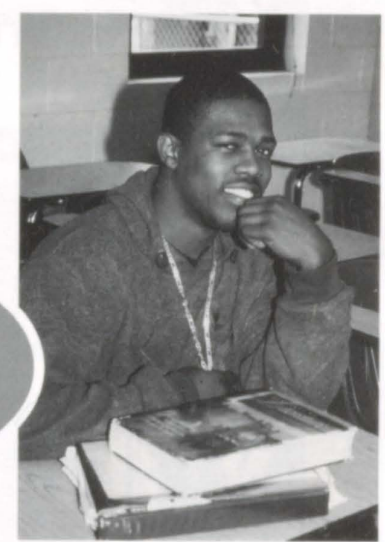

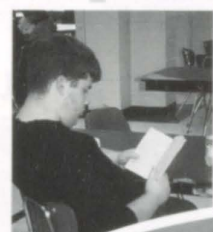

Throughout the National Honor Society induction ceremony, five candles symbolizing KNOWLEDGE, SERVICE, SCHOLARSHIP, CHARACTER, and LEADERSHIP are lit by the club's officers and sponsors.

Kami Burns receives her National Honor Society pin and certificate.

Your assignment -
Get Involved!!

Central High School continues the story of service to the school and to the Carrollton community through the work and effort of various student organizations. This year our students gave blood to the Red Cross, raised money for a beloved community member in a fire, and conducted food drives for the Soup Kitchen and a towel drive for the Carroll County Humane Society's Animal Shelter. Even before such a thing as character education, CHS was showing its giving spirit and community dedication of the students.

Chorus is the one fine art that provides an outlet for beautiful voices of Central High. In the words of Melissa Huckeba, "Being a part of chorus has opened the door for so many fulfilling experiences. Whether performing for a competition or touching an elderly person with a simple song, it is all worth while."

Ode to Hamlet

The 2001-2002 drama season opened with the Central Stage production of the hilarious "15-Minute Hamlet." Much to the delight of the audience, Adam Lanier and Company told the story of the melancholy Dane with wit and energy that the Bard himself would envy.

The Spotlight is on Jessica Burks!

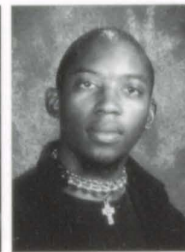

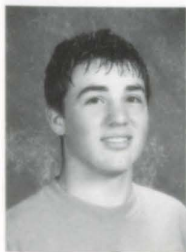

Jessica not only dapples in the arts--she masters them. A poet extrodanaire and a band member , Jessica makes beautiful music whether the pen or the clarinet is her instrument. Jessica hopes to attend Young Harris College in North Georgia after her graduation in 2003 and after that is still up in the air. Watch for this rising star as she continues writing her story on the pages of Central High School history...

The Spotlight is on Drew Jones!

In the next decade, look for Drew's name on the program credits of your favorite fantasy video game. Drew's dream job is to be a script writer for games like Final Fantasy Ten. He believes that video games provide the perfect medium for expressing one's ideas and creativity since it offers interactive play between the program and the player.

So remember to check those credits and you might be able to say, "Hey, I used to know this guy when we were students at CHS!" Way to go, Drew!

A new chapter in life... Making new memories, friends and learning a new way of life... HIGH SCHOOL

The Spotlight is on ...

Michael Lee is an exceptional ninth grader. I have had the pleasure of having him in my English class this year, and he always makes a positive contribution. Not only does he do well in class, he also excels in his extra-curricular involvement. He is a member of the Key Club. I, along with Rhonda Collum, sponsor this organization, and we know that Michael is one of those students we can depend on to accept any assignment. The assigned task will be completed by the deadline with accuracy. I have appreciated all the help he has provided to the Key Club. Michael is definitely outstanding academically as well as in his extracurricular activities. - Ms. Bachus

This is a contest to see how many freshman girls we can pack at one table!

Emily says, There's a hair in my food!

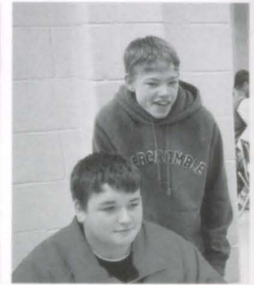

Sorry but we don't have our agendas today!

At this rate we will never graduate!

Being a Freshman on the football team is rough; look what they did to my leg!

Teachers Talk Back

Lets see what the faculty has to say about the Class of 2005!

" They have a lot of energy, very outspoken and very opinionated in class discussions!"

-Ms. Whitman

"Spoiled Rotten" - Ms. Collum

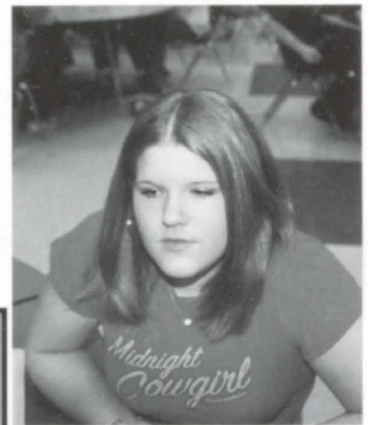

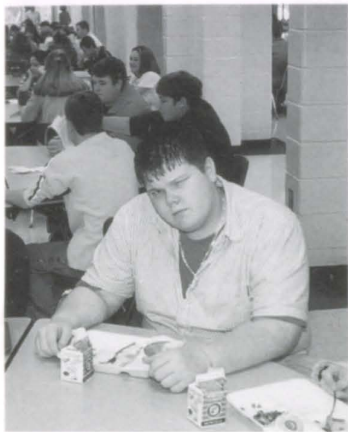

" They always ask 'Why, why, why'; but I say 'Why ask why?'" - Ms. DeBilizan

Well, they are AOT(Always On Time)."

-Senor Kay

Anna Potter says " Are you sure that they are talking about OUR class?"

Freshmen, what will you miss about being the new kid?

" I will miss all those Senior girls who had the hots for me. I mean they really did call me WAY TOO MUCH!"

- Dan "The Man" Dixon

" I will miss using the excuse, 'But I'm just a freshman--I didn't know,' when I break a rule" (sorry, Dad!) - Kelly Folk

The name calling will NOT be missed!

These girls will miss having lunch together!!

We will miss being cramped in 400 hall. NOT!

This was the volleyball team's first season. Sixty-eight girls tried out and thirteen were chosen to complete our team. Samantha Schaurfenberg was our only member who had ever played on an organized volleyball team, but the strong dedication of Tishawna Morrow, and Warren, our able to pull off and win games. This great improvement from their biggest upset was when Huckeba was unable to finish the season. Next year, the powerful serve of Molly Grizzard, the hustle of Hannah Barr, as well as the versatility of Jessie Wells, will be back. With one year under our belts, we are looking forward to a great JV and Varsity season.

Continuing the Tradition ...

In 1965 I graduated first grade at Central. Twelve years later I graduated in 1977 in this same building excluding the additions. Central has always been a good school with a lot of wonderful teachers. It's a great feeling to know that my children have will have some of those same caring teachers. Two of my children have graduated here and two more are still attending. I am very proud to be a member of the staff and for my children to be here.

There are a lot of things I'd like to say to you as you are graduating, Congratulations, Good Luck, Best Wishes, Happiness, etc. All of these are the things that you know I want for you. I want you to know that we are proud of you and your many accomplishments, but most of all, as I am writing this, I am filled with tears of emotion, because the most important thing I want you to know is how much we truly LOVE YOU.

Stephanie, Since you were born, you have known who you were and what you have wanted and you have faced every challenge with candid confidence. From your very first words you have been able to express yourself quite articulately and have had no fear of doing so. Even with such an avid and tenacious youth, you've matured into a young woman who is more comfortable with herself than ever before. You are one of the most intelligent and beautiful people we've encountered. We are very proud of you and admire you more and more with each passing day.

Love, Mother and Daddy

For every hill I've had to climb,
 For every stone that bruised my feet,
 For all the cold sweat and grime,
 For blinding storms and burning heat,
 My heart sings but a graceful song-
 These were the things that made me strong

For all the heartaches and the tears,
 For all the anguish and the pain,
 For gloomy days and fruitless years,
 And for the hopes that lived in vain,
 I do give thanks, for now I know
 These were the things that helped me grow!

 My little girl thinks time is slow,
 "Mommy, will I ever grow?"
 For me the time goes much too fast,
 An Hour or two and the day is past.
 But fast or slow, we each must do
 All that we can 'til our time is through.
 The world counts not the years we live,
 But rather the help and joy we give*

Life is a mixture of sunshine and rain,
Good things and bad things,
pleasure and pain.
We can't have all sunshine,
But it's certainly true,
There is never a cloud
the sun didn't shine through.
So always remember
that whatever befalls you,
And if friends disappoint you,
and plans go astray,
And nothing works out
in just the right way,
And you feel you have failed
in achieving your goal,
And that life wrongly placed you
in an unfitting role,
Take heart and "stand tall"
and remember who you are
For God is your father
and no one can bar
Or keep you from reaching your desired success,
Or withhold the joy
that is yours to possess.
For with God on your side
it matters not who
Is working to keep
life's good things from you,
For you need nothing more than God's guidance and love
To insure you the things that you're worthy of.
So trust in His wisdom
and follow His ways,
And be not concerned with
the world's empty praise,
But seek first His kingdom
and you will possess
The world's greatest riches,
which is true happiness.

Congratulations!

We're so proud of you.

The day you were born was miraculous. It was what I had been waiting for, for not just nine months but for as long as I can remember. The day I became a mom, you were so beautiful. We were so proud. The day you took your first step I could hardly believe you had grown so much. We were so proud. The day you had your dance recital, all dressed up on stage, I'll never forget. You were not quite sure of yourself but you kept on going. We were so proud. Now you are graduating from high school. Not a little girl anymore. You have done so well. You are so beautiful. We are so proud.
