

Day 2

Tuesday, June 14, 2022

Good Morning WAJ! Please stand and remove your hats for the pledge of allegiance: I pledge allegiance to the flag, of the United States of America, and to the Republic, for which it stands, one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

A reminder to 1st period teachers to take lunch orders and send to cafeteria.

1st and 2nd grades are on field trips today.

Student Council Members - please bring your lunch to our final meeting today during period 8 lunch. See Mrs. Palumbo if you have any questions.

Reminder to all 7-12 band members and banner/flag carriers, please be in the band room no later than 3:15 today to prepare for the Flag Day Parade.

Attention students in grades 7-12: If you have not cleaned out your locker yet, please do so today. Anything that remains in there after today will be thrown away in the garbage. Please be quiet as final exams are still taking place.

Any student taking a REGENTS Exams that will require transportation to or from school MUST sign up at the main office ASAP,

Students in Grades 6-11. Please check your school email for Fall Sports Registration information. Sign ups are due by Wednesday June 22nd.

We are excited to participate in a community project called the Thankful Jar. Several jars have been placed around the school in classrooms, the library, the guidance office and the main office. Please take a moment each day to write or draw one thing you are grateful for and put it in the jar. This is a wonderful way to increase your happiness, joy and contentment.

Daily Quote

Life is not about having everything. It's about finding meaning in everything.
