MEMORY LANE MONDAYS

Spotlighting employees that have been in the Cook County School System for more than 30 years!

Angela Harry

My name is Angela Harry, and this is my 34th year as an educator, all of which have been in the Cook County School System. I am a lifelong resident of Cook County, graduating from Cook High School in 1985. I went on to receive my BS in Early Childhood Education from Valdosta State University in 1989. Following this, I began my teaching career at Lenox Elementary School in second grade.

While at Lenox, my colleagues selected me as Teacher of the Year in 1991. I moved to Cook Elementary School when the county combined the city schools into one building. While there, I taught Kindergarten EIP, first grade, and second grade. I was also awarded Teacher of the Year again in 2004. I have been the System Writing Coordinator for the Young Georgia Authors Writing Competition for many years. I am currently a second grade teacher at Cook Primary School. One of my greatest joys as a teacher is when former students return and tell me what an impact I have had on their lives.

I have been married to Charles Harry for 29 years. Together, we have two children, Cee and Christian Harry. I have also been blessed with two beautiful grandchildren, Cali and Crew Harry. My God-daughter, Aliyah Jones, is also special to my heart. I am a member of Mount Olive Missionary Church in Sparks. In my spare time, I enjoy spending time with my family, traveling, and relishing in the joy of being a grandma.

Lisa Myers

I have taught at Cook Middle School for 32 of my 33 years of teaching. I have enjoyed being a part of the Cook County school system and getting to know the students over the years. I have been married to Curtis Myers for 40 years. We claim three wonderful children as our “Grands”, Declan Myers, Hadley McIntosh and Weston McIntosh.

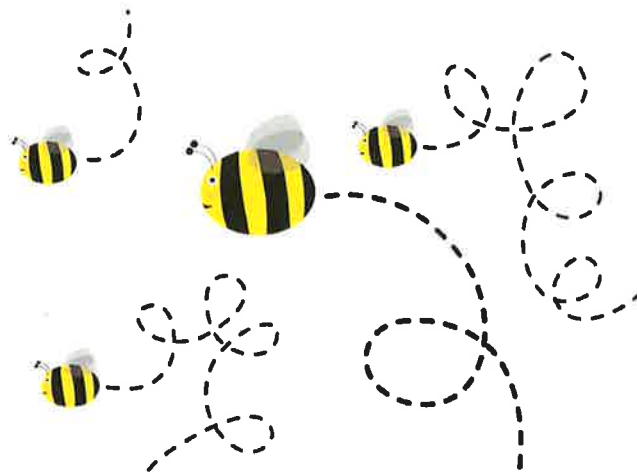

CHEERING for the DAWGS!
