Williamsburg County School District Board Members recognized by the South Carolina School Boards Association (SCSBA)

- Ms. Marva Cannon has been recognized for achieving level 3 in Boardsmanship Institute training and received a certificate and a gold pin.
- Mr. Heyward Baker, Rev. Jerry Dicks, and Ms. Carletta Scott Isreal have been recognized for achieving level 2 Boardsmanship Institute training and received a certificate and silver pin.
- Mr. Mack Burgess has been recognized for achieving level 1 in Boardsmanship Institute training and received a certificate.

The SCSBA Boardsmanship Institute, established in 1982, offers a year-round training curriculum to help Board members develop skills and stay abreast of state and national educational issues. Workshops focus on school law, advocacy and legislation, improving board operations, leadership for improving student achievement, and other timely topics.

Congratulations on this achievement, and thank you for all that you do!
