Transitional Kindergarten - 2nd Grade October Student of the Month: Remmy Fuller

I am excited to announce the TTK- second-grade student of the month as Remmy Fuller. She is full of energy, questions, and smiles. She is kind to everyone and loves to help out her friends. Remmy works hard every day to do her best. She keeps trying and doesn't give up when she finds things difficult. She has a great attitude and wants to learn. Way to go, Remmy!

3rd - 6th Grade October Student of the Month: Sam Burlingame

October's student of the month often has success in class come naturally but it is their consistent effort during this month that makes them shine. This month's student of the month is Sam. He has been very consistent since the beginning of the year in their effort on assignments completing work to a standard higher than his grade level. Writing and science assignments show a deeper level of thinking going beyond simple answers. His math assignments are completed on time and with good penmanship, are organized, and when needed corrections are done quickly and without complaint. Way to go, Sam!

TK and Kindergarten

Mrs. Tinnin

This week kindergarten is learning the letters- v and z. They are also reviewing previously learned letter sounds. Now that students know several sounds, we will begin reading BOB books in class. BOB books are beginning readers that reinforce the sounds we are learning.

Kindergarten finished learning about the five senses. They learned how each sense helps us in our daily lives. Students will learn about Ray Charles and Helen Keller and how they lived amazing lives without one or more of the senses.

Kindergarten also finished up our math unit learning about the number 10. To celebrate everyone doing great on the test, they got to do a fun math activity.

TK is learning about families and how families have different traditions or ways they celebrate special days. They are finishing up learning about the numbers 1-5.

First and Second Grade Explorers

Mrs. Mittge

This week we implemented many of the requests and ideas from conferences. This Monday families should have received:

1. A list of leveled AR books and series. Families can use this list to help direct students toward comfortable nightly reads;
2. Students' weekly spelling list;
3. A leveled reading fluency students can read throughout the week to build fluency;
4. A story problem students can read for understanding and work through as the week progresses.

Spelling lists, reading fluencies, and story problems will be sent home every Monday.

Thank you for your help and support as we all work to grow these exceptional, fun, smart young learners. As we venture into this month of thankfulness, I am so thankful for the opportunity to work with all of you and your children!

Third and Fourth Grade Classroom

Mrs. Mars

This week our class went full force on writing. Students are now using writing prompts that resemble what they will see when they take the SBAC test in May. Doing this allows students to become familiar with the layout and extra wording so they are used to it and not overwhelmed when the time comes. We are learning that the test is not something to be scared of, that if we practice and look at samples we will be prepared and ready to face anything!

Students also started play practice this week to prepare for our annual Christmas Play that will happen in December.

Fifth and Sixth Grade Classroom

Mr. Burlingame

Since we are back to full days of school this week, we are able to get started on being ready for a couple of activities coming up. The casting for the play has been announced in class and students have already started learning their lines and will be practicing throughout the week over the next couple of months.

We've had an explosion of sorts in AR points in the last couple of weeks. Here's our current leaders:

Sam- 53
Lillian- 32.7
Brayden- 20
Jackson- 14.2
Dylan- 13.6

Great Job Class!
Have a great long weekend!
