2.6 Data Analysis Questions

Analyze the LEA's data and answer the guiding questions to determine existing trends and patterns that support the identification of demographic and financial needs. Student subgroups with a count of less than 15 are denoted by "TFS" (too few students).

What perception data did you use? [examples: student perceptions about school climate issues (health survey, violence, prejudice, bullying, etc.); student/parent perceptions about the effectiveness of programs or interventions; student understanding of relationship of school to career or has an academic plan]	Parent, student, and teacher surveys, parent focus group input, stakeholder meetings input, and leadership team observations.

What does the perception data tell you? (perception data can describe people's knowledge, attitudes, beliefs, perceptions, competencies; perception data can also answer the question "What do people think they know, believe, or can do?")	Top 3 Strengths Supportive and Accessible Leadership 94% of teachers say school leaders are very or extremely supportive. Teachers feel comfortable communicating concerns (92% very/extremely comfortable). Insight: Strong leadership trust is a cornerstone of positive staff culture. Positive Teacher-Student Relationships 79% of students say most or all adults show care; 88% say teachers give clear examples and feedback. Insight: Students perceive their teachers as effective and nurturing, which boosts learning motivation and safety. Effective Communication with Families 76% of families report same-day responses from teachers. 84% say it's very or extremely easy to get information about their child's progress. Insight: Families trust staff responsiveness, which is vital for partnership and transparency. Top 3 Weaknesses High Teacher Stress and Overwhelm 65%+ of teachers report feeling overwhelmed weekly or daily.

What does the demographic data tell you?	Black students and SWD students are the lowest performing subgroups in the content area of ELA and Math. Discipline referrals have increased having 55 more than FY24. Attendance continues to be an issue with the percentage of students with less than 10% enrolled days absent going down from 86.53% to 82.75%.

3. NEEDS IDENTIFICATION AND ROOT CAUSE ANALYSIS

3.1 Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Read the trends and patterns summaries from each section of the data analysis process. Use the information in these summaries to complete 3.2 and 3.3. Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.2. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Coherent Instructional: Summarize the coherent instructional system trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Each grade level's common assessments were aligned to GSE and rigor of the assessments were increased to include DOK 2 and 3 questions. We need to continue to improve differentiated instruction, academically challenging environment, using research data based strategies, integrating purposeful technology in the classroom using Google, and providing feedback to students on learning targets and goal setting. Based on observational data there were inconsistencies with providing and using tools with students (rubrics, checklists, exemplars) to monitor learning and providing assistance in a timely manner. There were also inconsistencies with small group instruction utilizing effective and intentional small group instructional strategies based on individual student needs. Gains need to be made in Lexile performance, vocabulary instruction across all content areas should continue to be a big focus. Science and Social Studies instruction should continue hands on and application learning with projects, labs, Stem Scopes, writing, research, and presentations. We will continue to use Iready Reading and Iready Math to monitor the progress of the students in Reading Proficiency, Math Proficiency, and Lexile performance in order to meet the instructional needs of all students. Supplemental services such as interventions for rank-ordered and low achieving students in both reading and math in order to meet the needs of all students and provide additional support.
Effective Leadership: Summarize the effective leadership trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	During FY25 we increased focus on monitoring classroom instruction and the monitoring implementation of the school wide plan. Leadership will continue the monitoring of teacher performance, supporting individual needs, implementation of the school improvement plan, monitoring and providing resources, and maintaining a safe and clean environment for student learning along with strengthening building relationships, sustaining and communicating change, sharing decision making, data driven decisions, stakeholder participation in decision making, and communication. The administration will continue to work in these areas by increasing various forms of communication among the teachers, providing detailed information and school initiative information to teachers during grade level meetings specific to their needs,

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

	celebrating and rewarding teachers for their success, building leadership capacity with the leadership team, and RTI team. Include teachers in making decisions regarding school decisions and initiatives and inviting all teachers to openly attend leadership meetings. The administrators will also provide quality leadership activities for the leadership team and aspiring leaders to participate in throughout the year to build future capacity. Data will be shared with the entire faculty and staff and decisions will be made as a whole based on the data. Surveys will be conducted throughout the year to allow teachers to have a voice in decisions about the school. The leadership team will invite a diverse group of parents and community members to participate in the school leadership meetings. A variety of communication methods will be utilized in order to promote participation.
Professional Capacity: Summarize the professional capacity trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Professional learning is identified based on school needs, and adequate resources are provided. Continue to strengthen the culture of collaboration, shared decision making, sustaining and monitoring of professional learning. LCES will continue to offer personalized professional learning to enhance Tier 1 instruction focusing on writing strategies, reading strategies, math strategies, small group, and student feedback. We will also focus on three of our main instructional resources: 95% Group, Write Score, and iReady. Writing integration such as strategies, journals, academic writing, creating and using rubrics, grading and grade level expectations. Teacher' capacity for utilizing technology in a classroom setting has increased. Teachers need support in using data to make informed decisions regarding student learning. Teachers also need support in employing evidence-based, Tier 1 instructional strategies.
Family and Community Engagement: Summarize the family and community engagement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	The school regularly communicates academic/ behavioral expectations/progress, and shared beliefs. The school regularly recognizes and celebrates achievements of both staff and students. The school also hosts a variety of parent and family engagement activities including Curriculum Night, Back to School Night, and multiple academic family nights. Improvements should be made in creating a culture of trust, building a welcoming environment, increasing participation in the decision making process, supporting strategies at home that support academics, and increasing communication between the school and stakeholders as well as developing and communicating rules, practices, and procedures. Engagement and communication to promote parent participation during events have strengthened, but the school will continue to strengthen it further.

Supportive Learning Environment: Summarize the supportive learning environment trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	The school has built a supportive and well managed environment conducive to learning. Some procedures and rules have been developed and maintained to create a safe and orderly learning environment. Supportive learning environment needs for the school include: providing an academically challenging environment, building a culture of trust and respect, and communicating and developing rules, practices, and procedures throughout the school and classrooms that create a safe and orderly learning environment. RTI supports for students in reading, math, and behavior will continue. Extended learning time will be scheduled for each class in order to provide acceleration and remediation to all students. The school participates in PBIS throughout in order to support and promote positive behavior in the classroom, throughout the school, and on the bus by teaching and modeling expected behaviors.

Demographic and Financial: Summarize the demographic and financial trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Lanier County is comprised of a high rate of poverty, single family homes, and homeless students. Our school is continuously transient with SWDs and military students moving in and out of the school. Our Hispanic population is increasing. A very small number of residents possess a college degree. Black students and SWDs are the lowest performing subgroups in the content areas of ELA and Math.
---	--

Student Achievement: Summarize the student achievement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	LCES Math/ELA GMAS Proficiency: 3rd- 51%/41% 4th- 48%/35% 5th- 49%/51% Each cohort went up in students reaching proficiency in ELA and maintained or went up in Math. 3rd grade scored higher than it has in four years in both ELA and Math. According to Iready, the percentage students rated early on grade level and above based on their diagnostic are as follows: Kindergarten (ELA) 77% (Math) 65%, First Grade (ELA) 73% (Math) 71%, Second grade (ELA) 74% (Math) 61%, Third grade (ELA) 69% (Math) 61%, Fourth grade (ELA) 42% (Math) 52%, Fifth grade (ELA) 38% (Math) 51%.

IDEA – Special Education, Economically Disadvantaged Children, and English Learners.

Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.3. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths	The co-teaching model continues to provide support to students within the inclusion classroom by providing instruction with both a regular education teacher and special education teacher, as well as supportive services with a paraprofessional. The implementation of GO IEP continues to provide support to teachers in ensuring the compliance of documentation and implementation of IEPs and Evaluations for students. The special education teachers continue to use data to make informed decisions regarding their students' needs. ESOL students receive additional instruction from an ESOL certified teacher. All students will be ranked using multiple, educationally-related selection criteria to meet grade level academic needs. The students with the greatest need receive Title 1 interventions in reading and/or math.
-----------	---

Challenges	Challenges continue to present itself with the scheduling of students that qualify for multiple services based on needs. Meeting the academic needs of all students within a classroom is a challenge for teachers when their classrooms are multifaceted and diverse and students present with multiple needs.
