HEMINGWAY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL ARTIST RECOGNIZED

Hemingway Elementary School's talented artist, D'Anyah Derosa, was selected as one of 16 winning artists out of more than 350 entries for her illustration of the concept of Scarcity. The Color the Concepts Calendar Contest challenges K-8 scholars to illustrate one of ten concepts outlined in the South Carolina Social Studies Standards.

The concepts include:

- Scarcity
- Opportunity Cost
- Needs and Wants
- Consumers and Producers
- Goods and Services
- Productive Resources
- Specialization and Trade
- Budgeting
- Saving and Spending
- Investing

D'Anyah received her original artwork framed, along with a check for $25.00. Her art will also be published in the 2025/2026 South Carolina Economic Calendar, and she received a certificate acknowledging this significant accomplishment. She was recognized today at the 36th Annual Economics and Financial Literacy Awards Luncheon held at the Brookland Banquet and Conference Center in West Columbia.

As a certified South Carolina Financial Literacy Master Teacher, Mrs. Angelia Jackson, the Media Specialist at Hemingway Elementary School taught these concepts during her Media Center sessions for about two and a half weeks. If you need any further information, please feel free to contact her at the school.
