Dear Parishioners,

Ash Wednesday is this week, and as we begin the penitential season of Lent, it is helpful to review the rules of fasting and abstinence.

Fasting on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday is required (except for grave health concerns) for those ages 18–59. One normal meal is permitted, along with two smaller meals that together do not equal a full meal. Coffee without creamer, tea, and other clear beverages do not break the fast, provided they contain minimal caloric value. For those who are able, continuing the fast through Holy Saturday is encouraged as a voluntary practice.

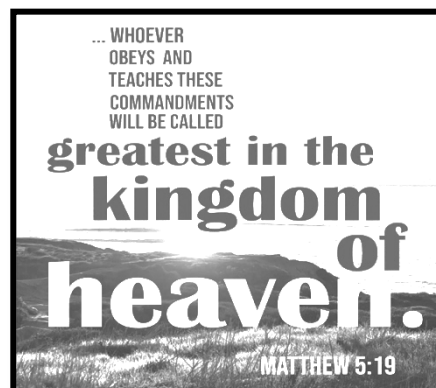

Abstinence from meat is required on Ash Wednesday and all Fridays of Lent (and, technically, on all Fridays of the year unless another act of penance is substituted). Abstinence simply means refraining from eating the flesh of mammals or fowl on those days. There are some common allowances: meat-based broths, as well as the use of lard or bacon drippings, are permitted as long as no actual meat is consumed. Historically, meat was considered a luxury food, especially before refrigeration, when large animals had to be eaten quickly or preserved. Some dioceses have granted special dispensations over the years—such as the famous Detroit dispensation allowing muskrat, or dispensations when St. Patrick’s Day falls on a Friday—but the Diocese of New Ulm has no such dispensations. Fish, eggs, and dairy products are permitted, as are fruits and vegetables.

In the not-so-distant past, the discipline of fasting was far stricter. Eggs and dairy were also excluded, since they are animal products. This practice led to an abundance of stored eggs, which helps explain why eggs became associated with Easter, in addition to their symbolism of new life. Likewise, the fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday was once far more severe—no food at all was permitted on those days. We follow the practices appropriate to our time and place, understanding that these disciplines help prepare us to celebrate the Lord’s Resurrection; they are not a means of “earning” salvation.

In Christ,

Fr. Todd

WOMEN'S LENTEN RETREAT – Feb. 27 - Mar. 1

“Lent – Finding Hope in Suffering”

Though we cannot avoid suffering, we are called to live with hope. When we take up our cross and follow Jesus, God can bring good from it. 1 Peter 5:10 promises God will restore, strengthen, and establish us after we have suffered for a little while.

Join us this Lenten season so discover a deeper understanding of suffering—and to be transformed by God’s grace. Fr. Joe Vogel will be the spiritual director. Dcn. Mike McKeown and Sr. Maria Johanna are presenters.

Begins Friday, February 27, with supper at 6:00 pm and concludes Sunday, March 1 at noon.

Mark your calendars with the date of the Lenten Retreat.
