60	Regular and clear communication between teaches, administrators, and families can foster a strong community. Utilizing platforms like newsletters; apps, or social media can keep everyone informed about events, resources, and student progress.	1/12/2026 1:19 PM
61	This is his second year and honestly I don't have anything but positive things to say. Ashton always tells me how well he is treated and anytime i have visited the school I notice how the staff actually knows and cares for their student which is greatly appreciated I really can only say that my work schedule always interferes with school functions and I hate missing out on anything I am able to make it to field day or holiday lunches But other than that work is always interfering and this the first year Ashton 70 he usually is all A's & B's or A+ i wish had taken the time to go to the workshop to help bring up his grade	1/12/2026 1:09 PM
