

Randolph County School System
"STAR<sup>3</sup> Students" for April 2024

Franklinville Elementary School – Landon Bowland

Landon Bowland is a beacon of kindness and integrity in our school community. With a heart as vast as his determination, Landon embodies the essence of doing the right thing, even when faced with challenges. Whether it's lending a helping hand to a struggling classmate or standing up for what's just, Landon's unwavering commitment to kindness sets him apart. His classmates admire him for his genuine compassion and unwavering moral compass. In addition to his kindness and integrity, Landon is a shining star in the academic arena. He has an insatiable thirst for knowledge and a relentless drive for excellence. Landon consistently exceeds expectations in every academic endeavor. Whether mastering complex fractions in math class or delving into literature, Landon's dedication to academic success never goes unnoticed. His dedication to his studies is unparalleled and he serves as an inspiration to his peers, demonstrating that with hard work, perseverance, and a passion for learning, anything is possible. Franklinville Elementary is honored to have Landon Bowland as our STAR<sup>3</sup> student for April.

Grays Chapel Elementary School – Eli Nixon

Grays Chapel Elementary is proud to recognize Eli Nixon as our STAR<sup>3</sup> student for April. Eli always has a smile on his face each morning and greets the person who opens the car door for him. He enters the classroom each day with enthusiasm and a desire to learn something new. He works hard to be an active listener by engaging and participating in all classroom activities. Eli leads by example inside and outside the classroom. He works well with everyone, and he goes out of his way to encourage his peers. Eli is persistent, and he always puts forth his best effort. Eli exhibits Bluehawk pride every day. Congratulations to Eli Nixon, Grays Chapel's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for April.

Level Cross Elementary School – Canaya Price

Canaya Price is an excellent example of Lion Pride. She puts forth effort in all things that she does. She is respectful, kind, and quiet, does what is asked of her, is a teacher leader, and friend to all. Canaya will hold the door open for others, she will help someone clean up a mess and will step in and do whatever is needed. She is the student who is guaranteed to hug you every morning to start your day off with so much positivity and a contagious smile. She has such a loving heart and wants to do good for others. She is always engaged in her learning and her teacher has shared that Canaya wants to be a teacher when she grows up. We expect big things from Canaya and look forward to hearing all about her future successes. We are proud to nominate Canaya Price as our STAR<sup>3</sup> student for April.

Liberty Elementary School – Malaysia Anderson

Malaysia's teacher describes her as the most hardworking student she has ever seen. She constantly gets her work done on time, takes her time on all her assignments, and is motivated to fix her mistakes. She is always willing to help around the classroom, read things for other students, or help in any way that is needed. She has been the top reader in her classroom multiple times which shows her dedication to reading outside of school. She also was nominated and voted to be her classroom's Student Council representative and demonstrates that role brilliantly. Whether Malaysia is in the classroom, hallway, cafeteria, specials, or recess she is encouraging other students to represent our school well. She truly is a light and joy to anyone who meets her. We'd be hard-pressed to find a better STAR<sup>3</sup> representative for our school!

Northeastern Randolph Middle School – Fernando Aguero Castillo

Coming into sixth grade is never easy because of the many changes that come with switching from elementary to middle school. Add to that coming to another school from another state and the transition is even more complex. But our nominee for STAR<sup>3</sup> student did just that. He has come into NERMS and been embraced by teachers and peers alike. He is kind, fair, and respectful of all of the Patriots he encounters on a daily basis. He has made significant growth academically and in the iReady program. He has also been willing to translate and assist students who have a language barrier to ensure they can access and be successful within the curriculum. His work is always of a quality caliber and he can even write in cursive! At intramurals, he embodies competitiveness and fairness and is impressive to watch. For these reasons, we feel Fernando Aguero Castillo is our Star<sup>3</sup> student at Northeastern Randolph Middle.

Providence Grove High School – Tucker Minnich

Providence Grove proudly honors Tucker Minnich as our STAR<sup>3</sup> student, recognizing his exceptional leadership both inside and outside the classroom. As a member of our student-led FCS group, Tucker plays a pivotal role, sharing his inspiring story that has touched the lives of over 2,500 individuals in our community. Moreover, Tucker's influence extends to our student body as he leads our spirited student section with unparalleled enthusiasm. His remarkable character and unwavering morals make him a beacon of leadership at Providence Grove, where his charismatic attitude leaves an indelible mark on all who know him. After high school, Tucker plans to join the military as a career Army Ranger. Providence Grove is proud to call Tucker our STAR<sup>3</sup> student!

Ramseur Elementary School – Jackelyn Reyes Diaz

Ramseur Elementary is proud to recognize 5th-grade student Jackelyn Reyes Diaz as our Star<sup>3</sup> student for April. From the moment Jackie came to Ramseur, she displayed an incredible work ethic each and every day. She completes any task with a smile and a willingness to do more. She has continually demonstrated a nurturing and helpful role with her classmates, especially the younger students. She is a true role model for her peers and an inspiration to all who know her. Her gentle presence and radiant smile have the power to brighten even the most ordinary of days, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere wherever she goes. Her hard work, kindness, and infectious spirit have made an indelible mark on our school, and we are confident that she will continue to shine brightly in all her future endeavors.

Randleman Elementary School – Haiydn Poindexter

Haiydn is truly a star in my classroom and in any room she walks in. Haiydn is always looking for ways to help others, whether it is another teacher, a classmate, or just a student in the hallway. Haiydn is truly a friend to everyone she meets and always has a smile on her face. I wish all teachers could have Haiydn in their classroom as she is truly a blessing and an example of a strong student who is kind, supportive, considerate, honest, and hard-working. Haiydn is a problem solver, if something in our classroom is not running smoothly her brain is already rolling to think of ways to help myself and her classmates. Recently a student did not have something and she immediately went over and gave her personal supplies to help. There is truly no limit to her thoughtfulness. Her strengths go beyond her kind attitude, she is always looking for ways to learn and grow. She never misses a night of homework and always asks for more, she loves the challenge and to grow her brain. I am so proud of Haiydn for being such a great friend to all, she truly embodies every bit of a STAR<sup>3</sup> student.

Randleman High School – Kadie Green

Driven, hardworking, dependable, and kind are all attributes that Randleman High School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student exhibits daily. Kadie Green maintains a top GPA while taking all honors and Advanced Placement courses and being a three-sport athlete in volleyball, softball, and basketball. She is someone that the teachers laud as responsible and dependable. One of her teachers declares that Kadie "... is a very conscientious student who takes great pride in the quality of her classwork while demonstrating a strong work ethic. She has a cooperative spirit that is evident during collaborative group activities conducted within the classroom and she is a strong leader. She has the ability to work with others respecting their ideas and opinions and is honest without being critical." Kadie is a model student who accepts nothing but the best from herself in terms of her achievements. We are very proud to recognize Kadie Green as Randleman High School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student.

Randleman Middle School – Ela Davis

Ela Davis is the epitome of a STAR<sup>3</sup> student and an incredible representative of Randleman Middle School. She is both an exceptional listener and communicator and is an example for others of an honest, hard-working, and goal-oriented student. She is an academic leader who is respected by her peers, and she naturally takes on the role of helping and serving others. She is thoughtfully intentional about her decisions and how they will and can positively impact others. Ela is consistently responsible and respectful, which is reflected in her relationships, work ethic, and perseverance. She radiates positivity and makes others smile with her encouragement, kindness, and generosity. We are excited and honored to be able to nominate Ela Davis as our STAR<sup>3</sup> student for April.
