Treasures and Talent

What a time we had during the second weekend at our 36th Annual Craft and Quilt Auction! Friday night kicked off with a BBQ dinner that filled everyone up just right before we moved on to the highlight of the evening—the program put on by our incredible residents. Fredy Caballero, one of our own who grew up just right here at the home and is now a part of our staff, led the show. Our residents took the stage to introduce themselves, and they sure did wow the crowd with their God-given talents. Denise had everyone clapping along to "If You're Happy and You Know It," and George brought the whole room together with a heartfelt rendition of "This Little Light of Mine." Levi and Lizzie capped it off with the sweetest version of "Lord Prepare Me." There's just something special about hearing our residents sing their hearts out. We know it's hard for folks to get to the auction on Friday night, but believe me, it's worth every effort. The love, joy, and talent these individuals share is a blessing to all who come.

Afterward, we moved into our craft auction, where local businesses blessed us with generous donations ranging from gift baskets to weed eaters—something for everyone!

Saturday started bright and early with our traditional pancake breakfast before we rolled into the big event: the quilt auction. With over 150 quilts, we were amazed at the craftsmanship and creativity that poured in from all across the country. These quilts were more than just blankets—they were works of art, each one unique in design, color, and size. Watching them go up for auction was a treat for the eyes and a reminder of the generosity of so many who support this ministry. And, of course, the baked goods table was a feast in itself! Homemade cookies, pumpkin breads, pies, and cakes stretched down the table, making it hard to resist grabbing a little something sweet. The fellowship we shared throughout the day, with quilts being sold and bellies being filled, made it one to remember.

Our Residents during the Friday Night Program

We wrapped things up around 3:00, but the memories will surely last a lot longer. Whether you came for the quilts, the baked goods, or the fellowship, we're grateful for each and every person who joined us. If you missed out this year, make sure to mark your calendars for next year—October 10th and 11th, 2025. It's a weekend you don't want to miss! We're already excited to see what treasures and talents will be showcased next year. Thank you to everyone who made this event possible, and we can't wait to see you again soon!

Now that the auction is over, we're already moving into the holidays—can you believe it? It's always such a special time around here, and we've got our Thanksgiving plans in motion. We'll probably be cooking up our famous trash can turkeys, as many of you have heard about or even tasted before. It's one of our favorite traditions! Many of you love to visit this time of year, and we love seeing you! We will soon be putting out our Amazon Christmas list, which ensures that our residents receive gifts they actually need. So, if you're looking to spread a little holiday cheer, be on the lookout for that list! You will find it on our website as well as on Facebook. We'd love to welcome you to visit and celebrate with us. Though we may not get to spend the holidays with each of you, please know that your support and generosity make this season brighter for our residents. It's a time of warmth and gratitude, and we're thankful to share in that spirit with our extended Galilean Home family.
