See with Heaven's Eyes

In a world that can feel harsh and hurried, let's choose to love like Christ.

"Let all that you do be done in love." — 1 Corinthians 16:14

When we look at others through Heaven's eyes, we don't see flaws to fix, but hearts to love. May our words and actions remind others they are seen, valued, and loved.

An Example Worth Following

Jesus endured rejection, pain, and the cross — all because of love. Though He had all power, He chose humility, showing us what true love looks like.

“Though he was God, he did not think of equality with God as something to cling to... he humbled himself in obedience to God.”

— Philippians 2:6–8

If we follow Jesus, we're called to live with that same love and humility — putting others first, letting go of pride, and serving without expecting anything in return.

“Love one another as I have loved you.” — John 15:12

There Is More

There's so much beauty we can see — sunsets, oceans, mountains, and smiles. God created it all. But He also made what we can't see — the wind, His Spirit, and eternity itself.

"We fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal." — 2 Corinthians 4:18

Life is more than what meets the eye. Even when we can't see God, we can feel His presence and trust His promises. Jesus reminds us there's more beyond this life — more hope, more love, more to come.
