SMITH HIRED AS WCS D'S ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT OF TEACHING LEARNING AND LEADERSHIP SUPPORT

Mrs. Genia Smith is a native of Timmons ville, SC, and currently lives in Murrells Inlet, SC. She is married to Rev. Noel Smith, who serves as pastor of Friendship A.M.E. Church in Gresham, SC, and is employed with the Horry County School District. She is the proud mother of two daughters, Parris (a senior at Francis Marion University) and India (a senior at Waccamaw High School). Mrs. Smith has served in various capacities in education for the past twenty-seven years in Florence and Georgetown County as a teacher, Literacy Coach, Curriculum Coach, Assistant Principal, and Principal.

She has served her last seven years in Georgetown County as Executive Director for State and Federal Programs. Mrs. Smith is excited to join the Williamsburg County School District family as Assistant Superintendent of Teaching, Learning, and Leadership Support. Her passion and love for teaching and learning are truly infectious. She firmly believes that every child can thrive in the right learning environment. Her goal is to ensure that all students leave Williamsburg County School District fully equipped to embark on their chosen pathways, ready to achieve their dreams and make a meaningful impact on our society.
