5th and 6th Grade Dance!

In April our PTO sponsored a dance for our fifth and sixth graders. Students had a blast dancing, eating treats, and playing games.

March Madness

In April our student council sponsored a “knock out” basketball game and three versus three tournament. Our KARE Club sold treats. The event raised over four hundred dollars for St. Judes Hospital.

The DMS News

Our fifth grade “DMS News Team” has been hard at work conducting interviews, filming, and editing. You can see their most recent edition by clicking the link below.

Roller Coaster Design

Our eighth-grade students have been learning about energy transformations with topics such as potential and kinetic energy. To demonstrate their learning all students worked in cooperative groups to design homemade roller coasters.

Principal’s Challenge

Over the past several Wednesdays Mr. Regan and a group of thirty students have been training for the upcoming 5K. New runners are always welcome, you can sign your child up at:

Fairview Lake

Our sixth graders are currently visiting the Fairview Lake YMCA camp. Students are engaged in team building, boating, rock climbing, hiking and every manner of outdoor fun.

DMS Track Team

Our Spring track team began last week! Coach Reynolds and Coach Zuidervliet are thrilled with the level of participation. Students have been working and training hard to develop their endurance and speed. Our team is looking forward to its first meet at Northern Valley Demarest High School.

Graduation Date Announced.

It is our pleasure to report that our eighth graders will graduate on June 20th at 5:30 PM.

Math Team

On Saturday our Math Team participated in the Middlesex County Academy Math competition held at their community college. Sixteen brilliant DMS minds participated with Juna placing 7th and Justin placing 1st out of more than 150 students.
