Friday, October 28th: Class Parties and Trunk or Treat (Dress as your favorite book character!)

Monday, October 31st (Halloween): Pajama Day

3rd Grade

Coats: As the weather gets cooler, please remember to bring a jacket or coat to school. Recess is at 11:00, so it has been cooler while we are outside. Thank you

* Headphones: We have a few extra headphones in the classroom; however, it is helpful when students have their own headphones to use in class. They can keep headphones in their backpacks.

* Snack: Extra snacks in the classroom would be helpful, if you are interested and able to donate snacks for the classroom. Thank you

Science/Social Studies—Mrs. Jenkins

In Social Studies we will continue to talk about Ancient Civilizations. We will continue to talk about China this week.

In Science we will continue to talk about Life Processes and adaptations of animals and plants. We will pay close attention to Ecosystems this week.

We will continue working on the writing project this week. This will be done in class.

Math—Mrs. Snyder

In math this week, we will be working on identifying, describing, creating, and extending patterns in objects, pictures, numbers and tables.

Homework: Students will be given a homework page on Monday, October 24. It will be due back on Friday, October 28. If they finish it earlier than that they are more than welcome to turn it in sooner!

Upcoming Tests/Quizzes

Friday, October 28 - Quiz on patterns

Reading - Mrs. Aylor

This week, students will continue practicing nonfiction text features. They will review homophones and antonyms. Students will practice their fluency and reading with expression, as they read scripts for a new reader's theater.

Wednesday, November 1st: Test on synonyms, antonyms, and nonfiction text features.

Author Study: Patricia Polacco

Please continue to aim to read each night.
