Jakiah Watson

I, Jakiah Watson, of sound mind and body, do hereby leave the following...the love of band (concert and marching) to Nyasia Watson. To Olivia White, I leave you the trombone section and 1st chair (carry on the legacy girl!). To Chad Hawkins, I leave my talent to future trombone sections and my stands' music (so you won't have to print off any 1st trombone music in the future). Finally, I leave Mrs. Cummings, the front of the room.

What I'll miss most of all, is the memories I've made with the Eupora High School Marching Band, 2022-2025. Anything else in this school has been a distant memory (besides being randomly elected for homecoming in the 7th grade). No no, on second thought, we gotta talk about randomly selecting and voting people for something as big as homecoming. Don't put random people on the spot like that, especially when you know that the person you voted for doesn't talk and keeps to themselves. What makes you think I wanted to be voted? Hopefully you all have matured by now.

Other than my rant about something that happened 5 years ago, I'll miss the support I've gotten from teachers the past years, Mr. Hawkins, Mrs. Jernigan, Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Crimm, and Mrs. Cummings.

Lydia West

I, Lydia West, of sound mind and body, do hereby leave the following...

I leave you EHS and the 4 years of memories that will last forever, cherish this time because it will be gone before you know it. I love you boo!

Emma Gray - I leave you the title of the funniest person in band and top annoyer for Mr. Hawkins. Save a seat for me on the bus and don't find another friend in band or guard because no one can replace me. I also leave you the title of guard captain (you better make it). Love you!!

#1 2023 MHSAA Color Guard State Champions (#1 Color Guard in the world) - I leave y'all the next state championship and memories and laughs on late-night bus rides home. I also leave y'all all the wonderful memories of sitting in the gym watching Zylan try to get an 8 on the rifle. I promise I will be there in spirit at next year's football game halftime shows and competitions. I am so proud of y'all!!

Mr. Hawkins - I leave you Emma Gray...she is now your person who gets to annoy you every single day but also make you laugh. I leave you only a few more boring years teaching because no one can replace my hilarious, smiley, and wonderful self.

Please take very good care of them and don't try to be too hard on them, even if they can be a little hard to understand at times. Nealy- I'm leaving you with your amazing drive to get better, I love how you were able to grow so much at softball in a year! I know softball may no longer be your thing but I believe that if you carry that over to basketball you will do great things!

Jolie- I'm leaving you with someone else to be a manager for and all of my tips and pointers for your pitching, I love to see you grow girl and remember if you ever need help with anything I'll always be a call or text away!

Braylee- I'm leaving you with all of our funny memories together and photos of each other! I'm going to miss you and your personality so very much, you remind me of myself in a lot of ways! So keep being excited for those eagle miles and keep putting in that work because trust me it will show just how much you really care about your sport!

Raylee- I'm leaving you with all of your hilarious humor! You really know how to lighten a mood and I love that, keep being you!

Harleigh- I'm leaving you with all of the hilarious questions you ask and mistakes you make, they really keep Coach Grissom on his toes, haha! Mistakes help us to grow, not only at our sport but as people as well. Remember that.

Emma F.- I'm leaving you with all of those ground balls at the third base they kept hitting you and with Sophie to randomly appear at your house and annoy you, haha! Just remember don't be scared of the ball, make it scared of you!

Emma G.- I'm leaving you with Mary behind the plate. Keep her on her toes please she needs it sometimes, lol!

Cate- I'm leaving you with all of those Alani's you drink! Make sure not to die of a heart attack at the age of 20 please, lol!

Mackenzie- I'm leaving you with our centerfield during infield-outfield practice and the words I may and may not have said out there when I didn't catch a ball, sorry again haha!

Bentley Ray- I leave you with your amazing and upbeat personality! I love how bright, sweet, and positive you are! It makes an impact on the people around you!

Olivia H.- I leave you with someone else to mess with and call a roach, even though I'm nowhere near one. I'm going to miss you and your funny remarks, you little rat haha!

Aubri- I'm leaving you with someone else to bother and pick on you! Imma miss you chipmunk!

Coach Oliver- I'm leaving you with more girls to go through Ollie-Land. I also leave you Mary to annoy you a ton, haha! I'm going to miss hearing "A little help back there" even though no one ever actually helped lol! I leave you with someone else to give the ball and fist bump to while she walks to the pitching circle before warming up. And all those times I may have said that y'all were always hating on me, I meant the opposite. Y'all have been so supportive and have helped me a ton. Thank you, Coach Ollie! I'm going to miss you a ton!

Coach Grissom- I'm leaving you with all of those outfield drills we have done and all of those memories we have had since my 9th-grade year. I'm going to miss you saying "last set best set" and all of the times I've gotten to carhop to you at Sonic. I'm also going to miss all of those eagle miles, hiles, and workouts I've been through. You have helped me a ton that not even I can see it all yet. I hope you know that I am very grateful for all you have done for me. You have supported and helped me to achieve my goals in so many ways and I'll never forget it. Secondly, I leave you someone else to annoy and cringe with all of their "horrible" uniform ideas. Even though I think all white or black looks like fire! I also leave you with Mary, she may annoy you a ton and need a lot more push-ups but please look out for her and keep her in line for me. I'm also going to miss you nagging me to ice my arm more and to be more honest if my arm is hurting. Lastly, I leave you with someone else to work so very hard to be the best player they can be for you and the Lady Eagles. Just know that every time you said "You're going to miss me one day", you were very right! I'm going to miss you and the Eupora Lady Eagles SOOOO VERRRRY MUCH!!

Olivia- I'm leaving you with all of the memories of us struggling together in chemistry while doing classwork together. I leave you with all of our sisters to drive to school, you better not make them late! I'm going to miss seeing you every day of the week and getting to talk to you when I feel like it. I might cry a ton next year. I wish I could say all I want to say to you in this but I'm unable to. Just know I'm always here if you need a shoulder to cry on or just someone to yap to (maybe not about ur bf though, lol). Lastly, I'm leaving you with an AMAZING SENIOR YEAR!! :)

Mary- Mary, I leave you with my entire high school softball career. I'm going to miss you and your annoying voice. Truly I don't know how to express how sad I am that I may never be on a team with you again. I will miss you catching me and picking on me for being a perfectionist with where you squat while I warm up. I'm also leaving you a new throwing partner to chunk balls over their heads. I'm going to miss my favorite throwing partner of all time, even though you never actually wanted to throw with me. I'll miss buying Alani's with you before games and all of our after-game sonic runs. I've got way too much to say so unfortunately I'm unable to write it all out but all you need to know is that I'm going to miss you, my #1 catcher!

Sophie- Lastly Soph, I leave you with a new step to take in your life. I know it may be scary to start something new, like 6TH GRADE can sound so scary! Trust me I remember very well how scared I was to start it. But eventually, you will notice just as I have that it isn't as bad or scary as it seemed. I know you will be just fine, so have fun and enjoy it while it lasts because I have come to know that this won't last forever and it's better to enjoy it while you have it, because time flies.
