- Assist teachers with test corrections, reassessments, and other intervention opportunities.
- Build positive relationships with students while encouraging academic growth and success.

IDLA Site Coordinator

- Serve as the OJSHS IDLA Site Coordinator.
- Coordinate student enrollment, progress monitoring, and communication for students enrolled in IDLA courses.
- Support students in successfully completing online coursework and credit recovery classes.
- Collaborate with students, families, teachers, counselors, and IDLA staff to promote student success.
- Participate in training related to IDLA coordination and online learning.

School Support

- Provide classroom coverage during teacher absences as needed.
- Collaborate with teachers and school staff to support student achievement.
- Maintain appropriate records related to student interventions and IDLA.
- Perform other student support duties as assigned.

Qualifications

- High school diploma or GED required.
- Experience working with youth is preferred but not required.
- Strong communication, organization, and basic computer skills.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively as part of a team.
- Positive attitude, flexibility, and a commitment to helping students succeed.
- Must be able to pass drug screen and criminal background check.

Why Join OJSHS?
