

embARC

embARC Summer Design Academy
a UC Berkeley program for high school students
July 3 – July 28, 2023

Full ride scholarship opportunity available!

Scholarship includes tuition, materials, travel expenses, and room and board on the UC Berkeley campus. Scholarship application deadline is April 10. embARC is a 4-week summer design intensive program that brings together high school students to explore architecture, urban design & sustainable city planning at UC Berkeley's College of Environmental Design.

How to apply?

Email embarc@berkeley.edu for more information. Mention this scholarship in your email by referencing Promo Code: ISS2023.

Visit bit.ly/embarc_summer2023 or scan the QR code below to learn more.

Why should you attend?

- 1 Explore architecture, urban design and city planning as possible college majors and careers
- 2 Immerse yourself in design studio culture and the college experience
- 3 Work in a team environment with peers who have similar interests
- 4 Build a design portfolio to use when applying to college
- 5 Get exposure to actual public policy issues and make a real impact on your world
- 6 Earn a certificate of completion and 1 unit of credit on an official UC Berkeley transcript