

Be sure to insert this sheet in your special education files beside psychological reports.

Recognizing the necessity to protect test security, ensure validity of assessments, and encourage strong dialogue among the psychologists, parent, and student, as well as discourage redundant assessments, Yellowstone-West/Carbon County Special Services Cooperative maintains the psychological protocols associated with its evaluations at the Cooperative Offices.

Should a need exist for review of the documents, one should contact Yellowstone-West/Carbon County Special Services cooperative located at the following address:
