Agenda Adjustments: None

Hearing of the Public: None

New Business:

- AREA Agreement

The Board reviewed the area agreement and discussed various aspects including clarity of language, computation and comparison of tuition rates, mechanism for tuitioning students to other districts. The Board also discussed options moving forward including extending the AREA agreement by one or two years in the short term and considering other options consistent with RSA 195-A, through a formal joint process with a committee including Clarksville Board and Pittsburg Board representatives. Following discussion, a consensus was reached to propose a two-year extension to the Pittsburg School Board at their upcoming joint meeting. It was also decided that the future plans for the AREA agreement should be a regular discussion item on the Board agenda.
