American Idol Winner Glorifies God in Victory: 'At the Cross, at the Cross, I Surrender My Life'

American Idol's Season 24 finale turned into a church service Monday night after the newly crowned winner, 25-year-old Hannah Harper, boldly displayed her Christian faith in the winning moment, singing a worship song by Chris Tomlin. She performed "At The Cross (Love Ran Red)," barely able to sing as tears of gratitude to God flowed from her eyes at the end of the special night.

Will Graham is on the road again

Hot on the heels of a two-day gospel festival in Japan, the grandson of Billy Graham is scheduled to preach to a stadium of 50,000 people in South Korea this weekend. The event is set to take place in the city of Uijeongbu (wee-jong-boo) and is the result of months of groundwork laid by local churches

A victory for religious freedom in Ohio

Officials in Montgomery County have agreed to settle a lawsuit with Gracehaven over whether the Christian foster care ministry can hire only believers. The county had refused to do business with Gracehaven unless it hired non-Christians. Alliance Defending Freedom represents the organization and says "The government can't deny public benefits to a ministry that is caring for young survivors of sex trafficking solely because of its religious character."

Highlights from Letters to Power 88

Thank-you for your commitment to our city of Mobile and others. Your radio station is such an inspiration to my daily walk as a servant of the Lord. I pray for you all and will support you now with the summertime "crunch" of support and in the future as well, and pray that others will do the same. I have only a couple of Christians friends and find myself alone much of the time, and trusting in the Lord. You are a light in my loneliness and help me stay joyful in praise. In Jesus, God bless you all.
