

Teacher/Coach Position

Lohn ISD

Posting date: 02/19/2024

Closing date: Until filled

Lohn ISD is a small school in a rural farming community in the Heart of Texas. We are looking for individuals who are certified to teach and would be able to coach in a small but welcoming environment. Football, basketball, track and field, golf, tennis, powerlifting, and cross country are offered for students. Possible coaching positions include a defensive coordinator for football as well as head coaching positions for other sports, boys and girls. Our community supports our academic and athletic programs and prides itself on putting students first. Our district salary schedule is competitive and includes competitive stipends with room for teacher and student growth in mind. School housing is an option depending on availability. Come visit us and see what we have to offer!

- Entry qualifications:
 - Bachelor's Degree from an accredited college or university and a valid Texas teacher certification with required endorsements is preferred. A willingness to acquire such certifications over the course of the year will be considered for candidates working toward that goal.
 - Must be able to pass a background check for Texas schools.
 - Applicants must currently hold a CDL or be willing to obtain.
- Expectations encompass all areas of coaching and teaching. Because of the size of the school, versatility and willingness to adapt are a must.
- Benefits:
 - Competitive salary and stipends.
 - Insurance options include medical, dental, vision, life, and disability.
 - Emergency Life Flight Services provided for all district employees.
 - Sign on bonus.
 - Breakfast and Lunch provided for all employees, daily.
 - Small classes.
 - Daycare available for school employees.
