

Franklinville Elementary School collected canned foods for the community. This event was sponsored by the Randolph County Sheriff's Department. Students who brought in a can were rewarded with a free hat day. 135 cans were donated to the community.

