About Me

Hi! My name is Hallie Blodgett, and I'm the Fine Arts/Music Teacher. This is my third year in education and my first full school year at Hudson Park Elementary. In the past, I've been a substitute teacher, primarily for middle and elementary school. I'm so excited to have my own classroom here at HPE! My favorite fine art subject is music. I play guitar, bass, ukulele, and a little piano. My past musical experiences include guitar, choir, and music production classes.

Teaching Philosophy and Goals for the Year

My teaching philosophy is to give my students the space and time to express themselves through art fearlessly. Over the year, we will learn the fundamentals of music theory, art practice, and drama. With art being subjective, students will be graded on the effort they put into their work and progress.
