INSTRUCTION

Title I Parent Involvement

In order to achieve the level of Title I parent involvement desired by District policy on this topic, these procedures guide the development of each school's annual plan designed to foster a cooperative effort among parents, the school, and the community.

Guidelines

Parent involvement activities developed at the school will include opportunities for:

1. Volunteering;
2. Parent education;
3. Home support for the child's education; and
4. Parent participation in school decision making.

The District will provide opportunities for professional development and resources for staff, parents, and the community regarding effective parent involvement practices.

Roles and Responsibilities

It is the responsibility of the parent to:

1. Actively communicate with school staff;
2. Be aware of policies, rules, and regulations of the school and District;
3. Take an active role in the child's education by reinforcing at home the skills and knowledge the student has learned in school; and
4. Utilize opportunities for participation in school activities.

It is the responsibility of staff to:

1. Develop and implement a school plan for parent involvement;
2. Promote and encourage parent involvement activities;
3. Effectively and actively communicate with all parents about skills, knowledge, and attributes students are learning in school and suggestions for reinforcement; and
4. Send information to parents of Title I children in a format and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand.

Community members who volunteer in the schools have the responsibility to:

1. Be aware of the policies, rules, and regulations of the school and District; and

2. Utilize opportunities for participation in school activities.

It is the responsibility of the administration to:

1. Facilitate and implement the Title I Parent Involvement policy and plan;
2. Provide training and space for parent involvement activities;
3. Provide resources to support successful parent involvement practices;
4. Provide in-service education to staff regarding the value and use of contributions of parents and how to communicate and work with parents as equal partners; and
5. Send information to parents of Title I children in a format and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand.
