TTK - 2nd grade February Student of the Month: Willow Corey

February's TTK-2nd grade Student of the Month is Willow Corey. Willow has a sweet, caring disposition and an energetic, eagerness to learn! She is a student who makes measurable progress every day; reaching these gains using a strong work ethic, growth mindset, and quick thinking. Willow sets high expectations for herself and accepts feedback with an open mind and "can-do" attitude. Willow's positivity is contagious. She is quick to celebrate the successes of others. Her support and kindness is instrumental in setting a positive learning tone for our entire classroom. Willow Corey is a valued, precious member of our school community. I am proud to name her our February Student of the Month.

Way to go, Willow!

3rd - 6th Grade February Student of the Month: Logan Peatrowsky

The student I chose for February's student of the month has worked really hard in math class this last month. He worked to remember all the math things he learned before and used them to solve new problems. He is also a great reader. He reads every day in Accelerated Reader and just reached Leap 7! He read a lot of books and learned a lot of new things. Logan is a good example of how important it is to practice and learn new things. When you practice, you get better at things. It's like playing a game. The more you play, the better you get. Logan is a great student, and I am proud of him! He is a good example for other students, he shows that hard work and practice can help you learn and grow. Great job, Logan!

TTK and Kindergarten

Mrs. Tinnin

We're off to a great start to the read-a-thon! Reading goals are 30 minutes per day, including weekends. Please return the reading logs each day in your child's planner or yellow folder so I can count the minutes. I am keeping track of minutes read at school on each student's reading log that is kept at school. I will update you on your child's progress towards their goal of 870 minutes for the month. Our classroom goal is for everyone to make their personal goal.

Kindergarteners continue learning teen numbers. Ten ones and two ones equals twelve ones, and so on. They write the teen numbers in a number bond and write a number sentence.

Kindergarteners are learning the tricky words of, the, all, and, a. They are also learning about farms. So far, they have learned about why we need farms and what kinds of crops farmers grow.

TK is working on their Habitats unit. They learned about the woodlands and the types of animals that lived there. This week, they are learning about pond habitats.

First and Second Grade Explorers

Mrs. Mittge

Students trekked up to our capital city for Olympia Junior Programs this week. Students enjoyed the play experience listening to stories from abroad.

The Read-a-Thon is well under way! In order for students to meet their individual goals, they must read for 30 minutes every night- including on the weekends. In order for minutes to count, the reading log must be filled in completely and signed by an adult. Logs are collected every Friday, new logs are then sent home. I try to attach updated minutes to logs on Mondays and send the updates home in Boomerang Folders.

Please continue to work on money and time skills with students. First graders are now deep into their geometry study of two and three dimensional shapes. Second graders are using measurement and data.

Next week we will investigate seasons and spring! Wishing all of you a very happy last weekend of winter!

Third and Fourth Grade Classroom

Mrs. Mars

This was our 2nd week of the Read-a-Thon. I am excited about the reading we are seeing so far. Please make sure your child turns in their reading log each Friday. This helps us to track their progress and also helps to prevent students from losing sheets that have tons of reading on them. Keep up that reading and let's hit those goals!

Students worked this week to finalize their slides and practice their presentation for the Water Congress that we will attend next week on Thursday. Students will be going up to Evergreen State College where they will listen to a presentation about water testing and salmon, then they will present our results to other students before enjoying a fun and educational session of their choice in the afternoon.

Fifth and Sixth Grade Classroom

Mr. Burlingame

This week marks our first full week of the Read-A-Thon! I am excited to see how much time our students have spent reading so far in the month of March. Each week, students receive a new read-a-thon log sheet to record their minutes. Use this form as much as possible, as it makes final counting of minutes much easier. In 5th and 6th grade our goal for each student is a total of 870 minutes for the month of March. Our class goal is 10,440 minutes.

6th Grade Parents

Cispus is almost upon us! As you gather the items needed to send your student to camp later this month, remember that you don't need to get anything for survival kits. Through a generous donation, survival kit materials will be provided through the school this year!
