Dr. Anisa Baker-Busby Named Principal of Shirley Hills Elementary School

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Dr. Anisa Baker-Busby has been appointed as the principal of Shirley Hills Elementary School. Dr. Baker-Busby previously served as the principal of Lindsey Elementary School. She has over 19 years of experience as an elementary teacher and administrator. Her passion is to help schools build systems of support for students and collaborative processes that will ensure high levels of learning for all students.

Prior to working at Lindsey Elementary, Dr. Baker-Busby served as a teacher at B.C. Haynie Elementary in Clayton County and Miller Elementary in Warner Robins, where she was selected as the 2008-2009 Teacher of the Year. Dr. Baker-Busby served as the Assistant Principal for Instruction at Lindsey Elementary before being named principal in 2016. During her tenure as principal, Dr. Baker-Busby led Lindsey Elementary School to be the first elementary National Model PLC school and State Operational PBIS school in Houston County.

“I am elated to be given such an amazing opportunity to serve as the principal of Shirley Hills Elementary. Shirley Hills is a special place, and I look forward to continuing the legacy of greatness here,” said Dr. Baker-Busby. “I am truly excited about joining the school team and community as we continue to ensure that every student learns at high levels. Thank you to Dr. Scott and our Board Members for giving me this wonderful opportunity.”

Dr. Baker-Busby is a native of Crawford, Alabama. She received her bachelor’s and master’s degrees in elementary education from Alabama State University, a K-12 educational leadership certification from Albany State University, and specialist and doctoral degrees in educational leadership from Argosy University. Dr. Baker-Busby is married to Antonio Busby and they have two incredible sons, Antonio Busby, Jr and Ashton Busby.
