HEMINGWAY HIGH SCHOOL NAMED A 2024 NATIONAL BETA CLUB SCHOOL OF DISTINCTION

Hemingway High School of Williamsburg County School District was recognized as a 2024 National Beta School of Distinction. The school earned this recognition by increasing their club's membership by at least 10% from last year.

National Beta School of Distinction is an honor for Beta clubs that strive for academic achievement, exemplary character, leadership demonstration and service to others. With the quest to instill these qualities in students, the National Beta School of Distinction Award is designed to reward schools that show an increase in membership for the current school year. This year, only 22% of Beta Clubs across the country received this award.

In a congratulatory letter to the school, CEO of National Beta, Bobby Hart, states "This national award speaks highly of your commitment to academic excellence and illustrates your dedication to preparing students for their future."

The Head of School, Mr. Hart, says "This award recognizes the excellence of our students and the high standards that are maintained at East Point Academy. I am confident that our students embody the four key pillars of the National Beta Club: Achievement, Character, Leadership, and Service. Congratulations to all who helped achieve this most prestigious award!"
