

A large, embossed sunburst design is centered on the cover. The sunburst consists of numerous thin, parallel lines radiating from a semi-circular base. The entire design is embossed into a textured, grey material.

In Memoriam

Betsy Was . . .

To her family,

A loving daughter and sister who brought honor to them . . .

To her church,

A consecrated Christian always willing to serve in any capacity . . .

To her community,

An excellent example of youth fulfilling its civic obligation . . .

To her friends,

A vivacious, generous, and deep-feeling companion who always showed great concern for others . . .

To her teachers,

An always smiling student who showed cooperation and an eagerness to learn.

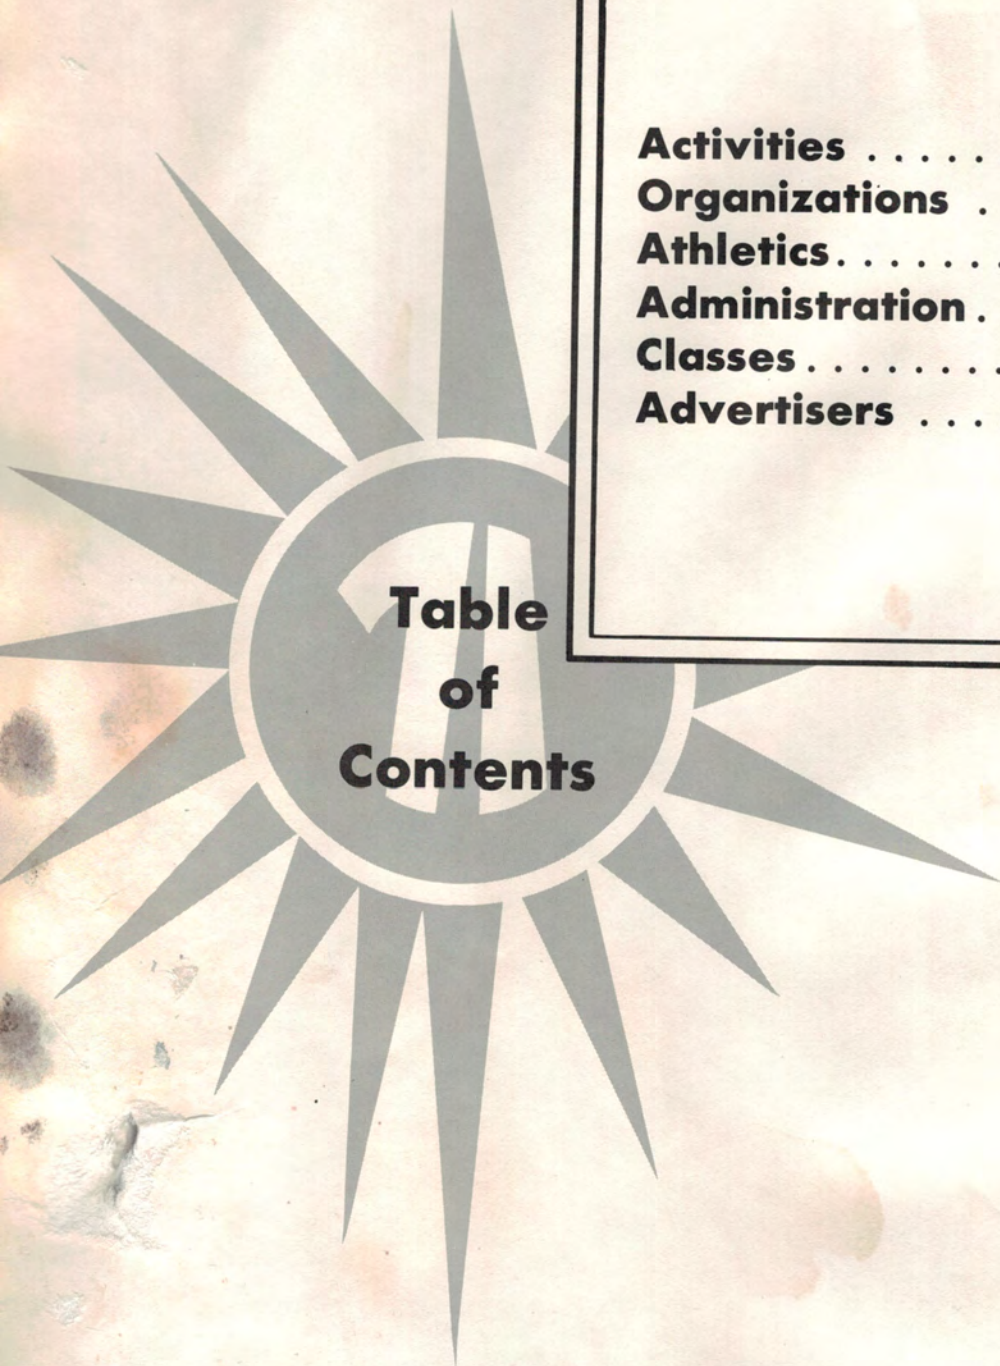

To everyone,

A charming young lady who represented the true spirit of Bunkie High School.

Betsy Lemoine

This year the Booster Club went through many changes. One of the ones for the better was receiving a new advisor. Miss Rachal has stood for many tricks and pranks with unfailing good humor. The Boosters feel that now is the time to thank her. Without her coaching our club would probably be non-existent. So our gratitude can only be in these words: THANK YOU.

THE PINK

In the beginning there was effort. The kind one thinks will run out, but ...

one thing lead to another, and after the paint job. The now well famous "Pink Panther" began a drive for letters,

PANTHER

ort. The kind one

A recruiting poster.

It began with high hopes. Work, sweat, and time proved that "where there is a will, there's a way." Painting, parties, gifts, recruiting, and smiles gave "The Pink Panther" an honored place in the hearts of the student body. He leaves behind a single word, if only the world would listen. That word is

PRIDE

And now that one year has past,

ll famous letters.

"The Pink Panther" really takes pride in his work.
