A victory for children in Indiana

A federal judge has ended a three-year battle over the state's ban in sex-change operations and puberty-blocking hormones for kids, issuing a final judgement in favor of Indiana over the American Civil Liberties Union. Highlights from Letters to Power 88

I am a student and I often need encouragement when things aren't going well at school or home. When I need that encouragement, I turn on the radio and listen to Power 88. This station has helped me in my walk with Christ. And it has brought me closer to my Christian friends. We often talk of our favorite songs on Power 88 and talk of how much this station means to us. This station has made a difference in my life and in the lives of my friends, and I am so thankful that this radio station is available for me and my friends to listen to! So thanks!

I have opened a door for you that no man can close. Revelations 3:8
