

This is a summary of laws that satisfies Illinois Department of Labor posting requirements.

Your Rights Under Illinois Employment Laws

The mission of the Illinois Department of Labor is to protect and promote the wages, welfare, working conditions, and safety of Illinois workers by enforcing State labor and employment laws, providing compliance assistance to employers, and increasing public awareness of workplace protections. Through enforcement, education, and community partnerships, the Department works to ensure that workers are paid what they are owed and that employers who follow the law remain competitive.

Minimum Wage & Overtime

SETS MINIMUM WAGE FOR EMPLOYEES

Effective Jan. 1 2024

$14.00 PER HOUR

Applies to employers with 4 or more employees. Domestic workers are covered even if the employer only has 1 worker. Certain workers are not covered by the Minimum Wage Law and some workers may be paid less than the minimum wage under limited conditions.

$8.40 PER HOUR

Applies to tipped employees. If an employee's tips combined with the wages from the employer do not equal the minimum wage, the employer must make up the difference.

$12.00 PER HOUR

Applies to youths (under 18) working fewer than 650 hours per calendar year.

Overtime

Most hourly employees and some salaried employees are covered by the overtime law and must be compensated at time and one-half their regular pay for hours worked over 40 in a workweek.

Paid Leave

REQUIRES PAID LEAVE FOR ANY REASON

- Workers: earn up to five (5) days of paid leave from work a year
- Use: workers can use paid leave for any reason of their choosing. Employers may not require workers to provide a basis for their time off request.
- Accrual: Workers earn 1 hour of paid leave for every 40 hours they work.
- Carryover: Workers rollover all unused accrued paid leave at the end of the year.
- Retaliation is prohibited: If your employer takes adverse action when you exercise your rights under the law, penalties may apply.

Existing Policy and Exclusions

- If your employer has an existing policy, certain exceptions may apply. There are certain categories of workers that are not subject to the law.

Equal Pay Act

Requires employers to pay equal wages to men and women doing the same or substantially similar work, unless such wage differences are based upon a seniority system, a merit system, or factors other than gender.

- Employers and employment agencies are banned from asking applicants past wage and compensation histories.
- Employees may disclose or discuss their own salaries, benefits, and other compensation with their co-workers and colleagues.
- Employers are not allowed to pay less to African American employees versus non-African American employees
- Certain employees at large businesses may request wage/salary history for their job title from IDOL.
