

CHILDCARE EDUCATION AND DEVELOPMENT

Program Purpose

The purpose of the Childcare Education and Development program is to provide accessible, quality educational opportunities that will provide individuals with the knowledge, technical skills, and attitudes necessary to obtain entry-level employment in the childcare professions. This degree program is intended to produce graduates who are prepared for employment as childcare directors, teachers, Head Start teachers or assistants, and teacher's aides. Programs graduates are to be competent in the academic areas of communications and mathematics and in the technical areas of planning programs for children, child development, creative experiences for children, and child health, safety, and nutrition.

Reid State Technical College will accomplish program objectives by providing students with comprehensive general education and technical training in the core area of Childcare Education and Development. The occupational skill preparation should meet the Child Development Association's (CDA) recognized skill standards. The philosophy and purpose of the Childcare Education and Development program are consistent with that of the governing institution. The Childcare Education and Development program is located at the main campus.

Occupational Data

Graduates of the Childcare Education and Development program work as childcare workers in an education or childcare setting. According to the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, Occupational Employment and Wage Statistics, the national median for childcare workers was $27.70/hr. in 2022.

Program Outcome Objectives

1. Program graduates will be proficient in communication, computation, and interpersonal skills.
2. Program graduates will be technically proficient.
3. Program graduates will be able to obtain industry certification.
4. Program graduates will be successfully employed in the field.
5. Employers of program graduates will be satisfied with their education and training.
