

FIELD TRIPS

Each year students at MES attend a field trip that is generously funded by United For Literacy. These trips connect directly to a unit students have studied in their curriculum and provide learning experiences that enhance classroom instruction. Thanks to UFL, these trips help deepen understanding and engagement through real world exploration tied to academic content.

