

West Bolivar High School Beta Club Excels at 79th Annual Senior Beta Convention

West Bolivar High School's National Beta Club showcased its academic excellence at the 79th Annual Senior Beta Convention, held at the Mississippi Coast Coliseum and Convention Center in Biloxi, MS. Competing in virtual academic competitions against Beta Club members from across Mississippi, our students demonstrated their knowledge and dedication on February 13, 2025. Pictured above from left to right are Mariyah Cooks, Omar Allen, Jordan King, and Jayla Evans.

Under the guidance of advisors Christopher Turner and Mrs. Chandra Miller-Faust, several students achieved remarkable rankings in their respective subjects:

- 🏆 Jordan King – 3rd Place in the state of Mississippi in 12th Grade Science
- 🏆 Omar Allen – 5th Place in the state of Mississippi in 9th Grade Science
- 🏆 Mariyah Cooks – 5th Place in the state of Mississippi in 10th Grade Math
- 🏆 Jalya Evans – 4th Place in the state of Mississippi in 11th Grade U.S. History

This outstanding performance reflects the hard work, dedication, and academic excellence of West Bolivar High School's Beta Club members. Their success highlights their commitment to scholarship and leadership, core values of the National Beta Club.

Congratulations to Jordan King, Omar Allen, Mariyah Cooks, Jalya Evans, and all Beta Club participants for representing West Bolivar High School with pride and excellence!

