

Mrs. Roy's CLASSROOM NEWSLETTER

Class news

Good morning, parents!

We've had a wonderful first full week of school, and I'm so proud of how our students are settling in! This week, we will begin graded assignments. Please check the "Upcoming Events" section for details about what's coming up.

I'm excited to announce that we'll be starting our Student of the Week! Each week, one student will be recognized for showing what it means to be a "PAWsome Leader" at Pine Level.

Our classroom store will also officially open this Friday! Students can use the money they've earned to purchase items or choose to save for bigger rewards.

On Friday, your child brought home the ELA Home Connections sheet, which outlines the skills we'll be practicing this week. The spelling test will cover words 1-15 only (no challenge words this week). We will also begin ELA weekly homework. This will be a spelling practice page that stays in your child's binder for the week.

What we're Learning
