

South Salem Elementary School

One School, One Book

We are celebrating Read Across America the week of February 26-March 1 by kicking off our school wide read aloud, Fenway and Hattie by Victoria J. Coe. All students will be listening to this book in their classrooms and participating in school wide activities that celebrate our shared read aloud.

Join us in celebrating using the calendar of events below!

Monday 2/26/24	Tuesday 2/27/24	Wednesday 2/28/24	Thursday 2/29/24	Friday 3/1/24
Bring your favorite stuffy to hold like Hattie does while you listen to Chapter 1.	Wear an animal shirt or animal print. Fenway and Hattie is told from a dog's point of view. Wear an animal shirt or print and think of what your day would be like from an animal's point of view.	Bring in a picture of you and your pet to be displayed. (Please write your name and teacher on the back of the picture so it can be returned to you!)	Therapy dogs will make brief classroom visits in honor of our main character, Fenway.	National Honor Society students from Salem High School visit to do Fenway and Hattie themed crafts with classes.
