Attention: We have recently had students pull a fire alarm on campus as a joke.

This announcement is to let you know that Pioneer Valley has over 72 cameras on campus and anyone who is caught willfully pulling a fire alarm will be turned over to Santa Maria Police Department. Fire alarm pranks violate penal code 148.4, are a misdemeanor and punishable by a $1,000 criminal fine. The Santa Maria joint union administration will pursue this punishment for any students caught engaging in this activity. (Herrera 12/6-7)
